FINANCIAL COMMENT

(MONTGALL & COWAN)
New York, Aug. 16.—Wall St. Journal—"Were it not for the fact that the prosperity of the country has never been truly discounted by the market, some selling should be noticed."
"The market has been sold to a standstill and the advance is automatic."
Daily market comment: The general sentiment of the street shows a waiting attitude in active trading, but we believe irregular improvements along specialty lines will be seen.
Higher prices are suggested for Smelting, Maritime and Harriman rails. Coppers are overvalued. Corn Products and Linsseed are bulled by pool channels.
"Why people active in the stock market should begin to lose immediate operations on peace is a mystery to me," says a well informed Wall street man. "Even after negotiations for a conference are concluded the large interests, billions at stake for almost every national participant are going to prolong almost interminably the business of the diplomatic corps, and all the while every party will be on guard" to the fullest extent in a military sense. "The situation will probably be chaotic for months." pounds; other securities, decreased 5,972,000 pounds; public deposits, decreased 1,364,000 pounds; other deposits, decreased 2,465,000 pounds; notes received, increased 69,000 pounds; government securities, decreased 17-000 pounds.

BOILER TUBES

The usual sources of supply report very low stocks with the highest prices known in many years. Our stocks actually in store at New Glasgow are exceptionally large and our prices quite reasonable, under present day conditions.
Your inquiries and orders are solicited.
