Digby with St. John. Chronicle takes Halifax to task for not meeting St. John in the Scull Race. Of t :e " expenses" it says :-" I maintain, Mr. Editor, that $150 is a sufficiently large sum to allow an oars-man of Hal fax to row on the Kennebeccasis, and that $300 is an extravagant amount. Suppose Mr. Brown and trainer to spend a fortnight on the Kennebeccasis to spend a fortnight on the Kennebeccasis in order to become acquainted with the course; the actual cost of board would be $4.00 a day for the pair, amounting to $60, thus leaving a balance of $90 cut of the $150 allowed, for other expenses If the people of Halifax imagine that the St. John people should pay a large proportion of the actual training expenses of the Halifax champion, and that they will be so foolish as to do so, I can understand the demand of $300, but can account for it in no other way." no other way. In reference to the choice of water, he remarks:-Mr. Fulton, in challenging Mr. Brown to row at Digby, could have been actuated only by the wish of a fair contest in neutral water, as he has only seen Digby basin once, and has never yet dipped an oar in it. Had Mr. Brown's friends at once accepted the challenge in the spirit in which it was given, and come to Digby, I do not hesitate to say that they would have been treated with every would have been treated with every courtesy, that all the unnecessary squab-bling about preliminaries would have been avoided, and that the best man would un-A BOYS' BATTLE. The Contests of Rival Towns—Three Hundred Boys Engaged in a Riot—One dies of his Injuries. [From the Wheeling (W. Va.) Register, Feb. 12.] For a week or two past the boys of the rival villages of Bellaire, on the Ohio side of the river, and Benwood, on the West Virginia side, have been engaged in fight-ing. Whenever a Bellaire boy was found Jail awaiting trial for riot.
On Saturday last a vast number of boys, about 150 on each side, met on the ice, by about 150 on each side, met on the ice, by appointment it would seem, and engaged in a most terrific fight. Every conceivable missle was used and several of the combatants received cuts in the head and face. The battle raged with fury for about two hours. One boy, a lad about thirteen years old, named Furson, whose parents live in Bellaire, was struck behind the ear. He fell on the ice stunned. In a short time he revived sufficiently to enable him to go home. He suffered terribly through the night, and yesterday morning he died from night, and yesterday morning he died from the effects of his injuries. Now that one has been murdered, and several others have The furniture for a Carleton School, imported by E. D. Jewett, Esq., from Boston is being landed on the North Wharf from the brigt. "G. G.
