Yet again it becomes our painful duty to chronicle the death of an old and respected citizen in the person of Mrs. Mary Powell Robinson, who passed away early Thursday morning in her 80th year. Deceased, although suffering from early time from weakness, the result of arteriosclerosis, was only ill for ten days and her condition only became alarming a few hours previous to her passing away. The late Mrs. Robinson was born in Euphemis a few miles west of the home on the Fansher road where she came as a bride and continued to reside until eighteen years ago when she moved to the village. She came of the pioneer people who in the earlier days were the bone and sinew of this country. Her husband passed away when her children were young but with courage and perseverance she made a good home and raised a family to be proud of and it will be their comfort now that they were always attentive to the good mother. Deceased was the oldest member of the Church of England here.

For nearly sixty years she was a regular attendant at its services. The funeral services (owing to Rev. R. J. Murphy's illness) were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bridgette, of Wardsville, on Saturday afternoon at the home. Interment in the family plot at Wardsville. The bereaved family left are one daughter, Margaret (Mrs. Parish), of Ottawa, and two sons, John Henry and William Frank (in here, all of whom were at the bedside of their mother during her illness. To them and the grandchildren much sympathy is extended.

Many relatives and friends from Watford, Shelburne, Aughrim, and Bothwell attended the funeral.

Word came to the village early on Sunday of the death of David Gage, who passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Payne, near Merlin. The remains were brought to Cairo, the home of his son Osborne, on Sunday evening. Deceased was well known and liked for his kindly, genial manner and during his residence here always had a smile and happy word for young and old.
