APITAL AND LABOUR.

Capital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future labour.

Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply toilsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters, and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or Capital. Labour, therefore, is sustained by Capital. Capital and Labour are inter-dependents.

The custodians of Capital may abuse their position and grind the faces of labourers; and, labourers may form trades-unions and organize strikes; but, labour and capital will not quarrel any more than a man will quariel with his meals. Cheapside believes in paying labour handsomely, as no country can be prosperous without well paid labourers.

Amongst these are seventy of the waters surrounding the British, Isles one hundred and fifty from the United Statis Government, and six hundred of unusual value from the Government of France. AQUATIC.-Hanlon, the Toronto champion, has caused to be written a letter in which he makes known his intentions for next year. He says :-"It is my hope to meet both Trickett and Courtney for a tilal at the oar, that aquatic court of last resort, during the coming season, when, if I do, I shall try and cenclusively demonstrate my title to the championship in my boat. It looks as if another year would witness some splendid aquatic contests, and I shall try and "prove my title clear" by doing my level best to place my boat first at the winning line in any contest I engage in. I realize how great the honor is of being champion of the world."
He seems to ignore Ross, his late opponent, altogether. Will Ross, on his part consent to be thus easily set aside .- St. John's Freeman.

Sr. Patrick's Hall, Ottawa.—On Thursday night the second of a series of entertainments in aid of the Seperate Schools, was held in St. Patrick's Hall Ottawa There was a number of ladies and gentlemen present, smong whom we noticed Rev. Fathers Whelan and Barrett, also a number of the Christian Brothers: Ald Starrs and Lauzon; Messrs McCarthy, J Heney, O A Rocque, J R Esmond, H Boche, R Sims, J B Brannen, E Evanturel, P A Egleson, M Battle J Lawrence, W D O'Brien, W Warnock, Geo Murphy, and many others. Mr R O'Reilly acted as chairman The entertainment opened with a spirited march by the Chaudiere Union Band, after which the Chairman introduced His Worship Mayor Waller in a few appropriate remarks. Mayor Waller on coming forward said, that he was present at the kind invitation of the Rev Father Whelan, and sympathized with him in his commendable efforts on behalf of education. The lecture was listened to with a breathless attention and repeatedly interrupted with the heartiest applause. The band then gave another selection. After a few remarks from the chairman, the audience were treated to a series of splendidly executed scioptican views of the Philadelphia exhibition and European scenes. We must certainly say that taking the entertainment throughout it was highly instructive and interesting. Those who were absent last night missed a rich and enjoyable evening. We hope to see a crowded house at the next entertainment, DUNKIN BY LAW.—The petition for the repeal of the Dunkin by-law in the county of Argenteull has been withdrawn.

THE BARTLEY CASE -Contrary to general expectations, the prisoner George Bartley expresses no desire to have his trial in the District of Quebec, instead of in that of Beauce. He is quite willing that it should occur at St. Joseph, and is anxious to get it over. The law officers of the Crown are contemplating the id-a appointing a special term of the Court of Queen's Beach, to be held about the end of January, for the purpose of the trial of the various prisoners in relation of the Beauce difficulties. The prosecuting attorney at this term will be Mr. Jean Blanchet, of the law-firm of Blanchet & Pontland, of this city .- Quebec Chronicle.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH, OITAWA .- After Mass on Monday a meeting of the congregation was held in the basement of the Church, at which a statement showing the indebtedness of the Church was submitted. Explanations were given and a general discussion took place. The debt of the Church reaches $36,643. The envelope system will be adopted by the B. v. Pastor to liquidate the debt, that is, an envelope will be left in each pew every bunday, into which the bolders of the seats will put whatever sum they please. This is an excellent plan, and will, no doubt, prove admirably successful.

ST PATRICE'S CHURCH QUEBEC.—The artistic fresco- NEW SCHOOL BOOKS ing of the central portion of the ceiling of St Patrick's Church, has attracted extensive attention of late, and deservedly so. That portion of th work immediately above and surfounding the sanctuary, has been previously described in these columns, and there is no necessity for the repetition Just above the organ loft is a most beautifully execu'ed representation of the Harp of Erin, which is the admiration of all beholders. Between the alter and the organ loft, the ceiling is divided, opposite each pillar, into eight compartments, in the centre of each alternate one of which, is an allegorical representation of one of the four Evangelists. The other compartments are covered with elborate designs in freecoing, the prevailing colors being brown and gold. The decoration of the pilars, and of the ceilings above and below the galleries is not yet completed, but will probably be finished in about three weeks, when the whole of the scaffolding will be immediately removed. The design for the pillars, including a broad gilt band winding around them, is very beautiful.

ST. PATRICE'S ASYLUM BAZAAR, OTTAWA.—The ladies connected with the bazaar lately held in the Temperance Hall met at the Asylum, for the purpose of making their returns and electing officers for the ensuing year. There was quite a large muster, and after the reading of the minutes the following officers were elected unanimously;-Lady President, Mrs H J Freil; Vice do; Mrs. J Heney Treasurer, Miss K McDonnell; Secretary, Mrs. E. Father O'Connell $20. making the total amount realized by the bazaar, $1,874 28. Included in the totals of the different tables are also donations from Mesers Wm Davis & Sons $50; W Mackey 50; Father O'Connell $34; and Alex Christi $5. THE REDEMPICEIST FATHERS .- The Wilness of Montreal is one of those sorehead papers that finds pleasure in opening up old sores. In a recent article, commenting on the judgment of Justice Sicotte relating to a church warden question in St. Andre d'Acton, the Witness takes occasion to refer to the priests of St Patrick's Church, who are styled by this luminary in Catholic matters "a body of frieign clergy." We do not mean to over the ground of the change which gave St. Patrick's of Quebec to the Red mptorist Order. Much was said and done by those who took active part in that affair which ought never have been either said or done and which charity now demands should be passed over and forgotten. But we do protest against a paper like the Witness interfering in the matter at all. In Catholic affairs it is but right for Catholics to act as best suits themselves, and Protestants would have a right to feel aggrieved if in their business, Catholics interfered. The Redemptorists are no more foreigners than any other class or description of clergymen. St. Patrick was a foreigner in Ireland, St. Columbia was a foreigner in Scotland, St. Augustine was a foreigner in England, and so are the Fathers of St. Patrick's foreigners in Quebec. We repeat it is not our intention to go into the change, what brought it about or the results which followed therefrom. But we think the peace, happiness and harmony of the Irish Catholics of Quebec ought to have some consideration at the hands of a paper which styles itself " the only religious daily." And we believe we represent the feeling of the majority of both parties in this city, when we tell the Witness to make what comments it pleases on other things things but leave St. Patrick's and the Irish Catho lics of this city of all parties and all views to settle their own business. When they need outside assistance they may ask cur Montreal contemporary to take a hand in but until then they desire no Montrealer to interfere.—Budget.

Poor "Lo" to Pio Nono-The PRESENES THAT SOME NORTH-WESTERN INDIANS ARE SENDING TO ROME.

There is now on exhibition in a Broadway store a very interesting collection of gifts which are soon to be forwarded to Rome as a present to his Holiness, Pope Pius IX., from some converted Indians in the Northwest, The gifts were sent to this city by the Rev. Edward Jacker, S. J., a missionary at St. Ignace, Mackinaw county, Mich. The goods, which are entirely bandiwork of Indian converts at the miss ion, are for the most part curious and beautiful little models of the various articles of Indian agriculture, household work, implements of war or hunting and the like. The principal design is that of a miniature canon of birch bark, about three feet long, fitted with masts and sails. It is beautifully embroidered with color-ed grasses, on one side the emblems of the passion of Jesus Christ, the cross as an emblem of Faith, and figures representing the sacred hearts of Jesus and Mary. On the opposite side are pictures of the American flag and other patriotic designs. The inscriptions can hag and other patriotic designs. The inscriptions are "Domino, salva nos, perimus," A. D. MDCCC-LXXVIII," and "Pio Nono, Indiani Otawensea."
"Lord, save us, or we perish," A. D. 1877. The Ottawa Indians to Pius IX." In the boat are three armless wooden figures representing Indians. Two of them are supposed to be the letter-carriers, an address to the Pope, written in Latin, being tied to one of the figures. Being on its way to Rome the cance is well provided with little sacks of Indian corn and, over which the third, in the capacity of cook has charge. This beautiful gift was presented by Mrs. Margaret Boyd, a full blooded Irdian, living at Traverse Emmet county, near the mission. There, are among the collection several implements of war, such as clubs, which very much resemble a policeman's club, with a wooden ball glued to them, and portions of old stone tomahawks. One of the hunting knives was made by Mr. Nadowekessa, who had his name attached to the weapon. Another very interesting article is a calumet, or peace pipe, of white stone and very heavy. The bowl, instead of being circular, is cut square, so that it presents four sides to view, on each of which is rudely carved a human face, a regular double Jonus, the four faces being typical of the four seasons when a smoke is enjoyable. Among the other curiosities are bows and arrows, flint arrow-heads, little birch canoes, specimen of baskets and pails, a little cradle (for the Pope!), miniature snow-shoes, about five inches long, and a pair of moccasins, which are just about enough to wear on the thumb. All these articles beautifully embroidered, and many of them have attached the names of the makers. Thus Mrs, Margaret Ogimawini sent a specimen of rush matting which the Indians use to cover their tents with. Several mats for tea-pots and coffee-urns were also contributed by this estimable lady. One of the little canoes has in it a small piece of birch bark on which is written in English in a plain hand the words, "An Indian maiden asks your blessing, Holy Father," with the signature, "Jane Lasley."-
