

Westminster Hall Magazine

AND FARTHEST WEST REVIEW

Vol. III

January, 1913

No. 1

Published at 1600 Barclay Street, VANCOUVER, B. C.

Subscription Rate: One Dollar Per Year

D. A. Chalmers.....Managing Editor

CONTENTS

	Page.
ENLARGED INSERT, CONTAINING:
Portraits and Notes concerning (1) G. Whitfield Ray, F.R.G.S.;
(2) Rev. J. Macartney Wilson, late of London, England;
(3) Professor R. E. Macnaghten, author of Drama of "Ruth";
and (4) The "Sistine Madonna."
Our Third Volume Begins—Special Notice. (Insert Page Five.)
RUTH: A Drama.....	9
By Professor R. E. Macnaghten.
SELECTIONS FROM THE MASTERPIECES—III.....	20
Carlyle on Burns (2).
THE LUMP AND THE LEAVEN.....	21
By Rev. J. Macartney Wilson.
CHURCH UNION PROGRESS.....	24
SHORTHAND IN MODERN LIFE.....	25
By D. A. Chalmers.
EDITOR'S PAGE.....	28
Our Sister Continent—Another World to Conquer.
Towards World Peace—Western Canada Points the Way.
CHURCH LIFE AND WORK.....	33
To Those Whom It May Concern.
The Church's Social Work.
Speaking to be Heard.
A New Meeting Place.
Ministerial Resignations.
Taking Religion Seriously.
Church Business Meetings.
The Work of Church Management.
The Envelope System.
The Publicity of Names.
Appointment.
AROUND THE HALL.....	37
Memories.
A Time for Good Cheer and Reflection—Not for Speeches.
The "Vanished Hand" and "the Voice that is Still"—or Absent.
The Latest Social.
A Letter from Edinburgh.
THE BOOK SHELF.....	41
"Through Five Republics on Horseback."
ECHOES OF LIFE.....	42
Welcome Letters.
The Moderator's Impress.
The Response.
From Height to Greater Height.
H. G. Wells on the Literary Life.
BUSINESSES WORTH WHILE.....	44
L. Gordon Drysdale, Limited.	