PUBLISHERS' TALK

THIS number of the "Canadian Courier" is issued in the week when Canada celebrates the forty-first anniversary of Confederation. The Dominion was naturally somewhat distrustful of national efforts for nearly a generation. But the era of experiment is past and the label, "Made-in-Canada," is now assurance of favourable consideration.

RECENT reports from "Canadian Courier" representatives in the East show that native enterprise in illustration and article is thoroughly appreciated, especially by subscribers of French name or blood. This weekly, edited, published and illustrated by Canadians, is the only one of its class in the country and is winning its way in the Atlantic provinces, as well as in the new territory of the West.

THE Pageant number, to be issued during the third week of July, is to have a cover design which every subscriber will wish to preserve as a souvenir. The picturesque features of the scenes to be produced in Old Quebec, where the Fleets of the Mighty are to gather, will be anticipated in illustration and story. The Tercentenary is a celebration in which all Canada is interested and the "Canadian Courier" number of July 25th will be of historic importance.

Stephens' Ink is pleasant to write with and follows the pen ungrudgingly, even when much evaporated in the inkstand. It is the best ink for fountain pens. Resolutely refuse substitutes of
