

Golden Bears on strike

by Al Shamal

To the distress of the Department of Athletics, the Golden Bear football squad is to go on strike come next fall.

Among the list of demands for the Bears, are: cheerleaders who don't cheer like Nazis, and a new place to play, instead of Varsity Stadium.

"We wanna play on the top of the Stadium Car Park," said offensive lineman Noreck Nagurski, "heck even the tarmac at the International Airport in February is softer than Varsity Stadium."

Bear head coach Jim-Don Levy isn't going to take this sitting down however. He will be bringing in replacement players to summer training camp.

"Most of them will be artsies," Levy said, "they've practiced with us before, though, they were used as tackling dummies."

The people in charge of promotions are ecstatic however. "Some of those NFL clubs got 10,000 people for scab games," said Athletics hawkherb Herb Tarlek. "I don't see why it shouldn't work here."

"We've just had a brainstorming session," said Tarlek. "We're sending out order forms to all the union members in town. They say, 'Come and beat up some scabs. Then see the other team clean up the leftovers!'"

"It'll be bigger than the Labrador Seal Hunt."

Athletics, always on the ball, have sponsored a student riot on the other side of town which as Tarlek says, "should keep the cops busy. Anyways, if everyone wears football uniforms, they'll get off like Dave Schultz did in Toronto in the mid 70's."

"We're not really against the normal players," Tarlek said. "But you can't give up chances to make money like the one we have in front of us."

One artsie scab football player, who did not wish to be named, said, "I've been dying to get in a football game so much. I wonder what earring will go best with green and gold."

Levy, never the one to pass up a challenge, is eager to mold his replacement Bears into a contender.

"All we have to do is make the proper adjustments," Levy said. "And play effortless football. I also have to tell the quarterback to throw the ball in the hands or in the stands."

Athletics boss Bob Steadward said that no negotiations have taken place with the striking football players. He is taking a wait-and-see attitude towards the scab games.

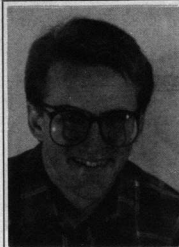

"Everyone says it will be a blood bath. If it is, it will probably be successful," Steadward said.

Rumours in Athletics say that the game will make "The Running Man" look like a walk in the park. They also say the Steadward is practicing his Richard Dawson impression.

with that Matters asshole... but he said that the Leafs were really an ok hockey team, and that really burned my butt.

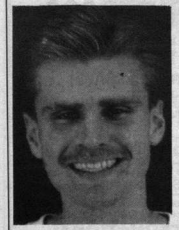

C'mon, Matters, admit it, the Oilers who are the cream of the top potatoes. Oh, year, and how about that CFL? Great, eh? Ya! Awesome!

I'm really sorry I said all those nasty things about you being, well, unmanly, Paul old buddy. I really hope that after you make $17 billion in Pittsburgh, you'll come back here and let me ghost-write your autobiography. Can you talk to Mario too, for the English version, I mean. I ne schprechen zie francaise so good...

How 'bout them Leafs. They actually are a better club than the Stanley Cup champs. Firstly, with a defence of Kotsopekous, Salming, Gill, Richardson, Lanz, and Degray, whaddaya wanna complain about. That Rusty Courtinall is good too. And Wendel is GOD!!! When he comes back at Christmas time it will be like the second coming. Courtinall, Olczyk, lafrate, and Himself will be like the Four Horsemen. Praise the Lord. Oh ya, they got balls too. Ya gotta like 'em.

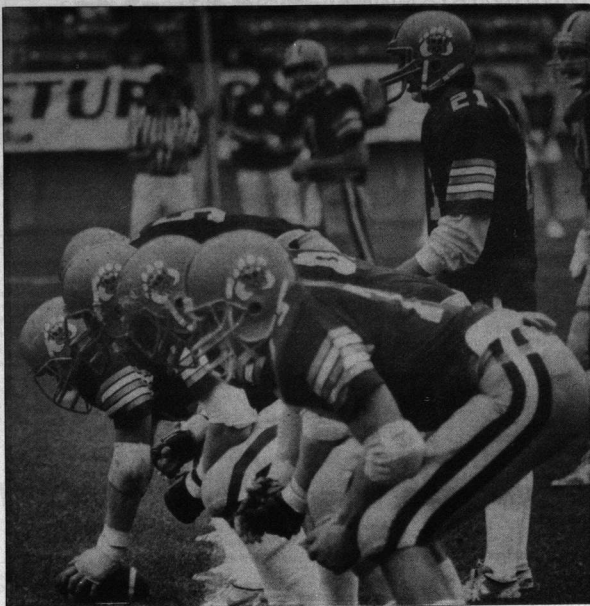

Gored Stench

Well I wasn't going to talk anymore about this Leafs thing

What about the CFL? Can't they do anything right? It's all fixed I say. They've got everything backwards in that league. They fire the coaches of the championship team. They keep the coaches of the worst team. They sound like Canada Post, whose losses make Mulroney tax the spot out of everyone. And why should we bring the Soviets over to play hockey. They just want our money. It's bad enough we give all of it to Uncle Brian, let alone Mother Russia.

They'll be bashing scabs at Varsity Stadium. The scabs will be lucky to make it to the line of scrimmage.

Bears bust Brontos: Bracko booms

Bears 10 Dinos 9 (OT)

by Scandal Matters

Top-Albertasaurus in the CWUAAA, the Calgary Dinos, invaded Varsity Pond for a real-old set-to last Saturday.

They left a little worse for wear, as the home ice Bears twanged the twine behind southern-rival puck-stoppers "Holey" Hryniuk and "Trousers" Trousdell. Ten times.

The 'Saur's got nine big ones of their own, going to extra-time tension before the Bears won one for the Drake.

Head-man Clare Drake said his team was a little tight in the first frame. "We were a little tight in the first frame," said Drake. "But we got a few lucky bounces, and the puck went our way," who added that he felt "lucky" to have the two-goal bulge at 3-1 the Bears enjoyed after twenty minutes.

The Dinos came out for Bear-meat in the middle section going up by 7-4 after two sessions on the good ol' Varsity Rink. The visitors were led by Barry "Bronto" Bracko, who notched three of his game-high six tallies in the swing frame.

"I was skating and shooting, and the puck was going in the net," observed Bracko after several minutes reflection on his success, and his team's lack thereof, adding "But we lost."

Boss-Bear Drake growled at his cubs after the second stanza, and they came out with fire in their wild-horses' eyes, which couldn't even stop them.

Curt "Brando" Brandolini got the Bears pawing early, with his first marker of the contest, an even-strength affair that set the Dinos backwards, heel-wise.

U of A major Urusas were unstoppable, putting the contest into spare time at eight-up. They then scored twice in succession consecutively in the fourth period, to out-gun the southern reptiles 10-9.

Sid "Siddy" Cranston scored the winner for the Bears, on a feed from his brother Dennis "Denny" Cranston and Stacey "Transistor" Wakabayashi.

NEUTRAL ZONES: Sid now leads the league in scoring... Brent "Tough Guy" Sevensy got into a fight with Cowtown clobberer Mark "Fisty" Foretti... He's trained in the gym, so he's pretty smart, ringwise-wise," said Sevie.

NHL, CFL, NHL, NBA, MLB play name game

by Scandal Matters

"How 'bout them Labatt Blue's!" is the new rallying cry for Toronto baseball fans.

In a major move at making sports more understandable by, and attractive to non-fans, the NFL, CFL, NHL, NBA, and Major-league Baseball are all going to rationalize their team names, said John Ziegler, NHL President.

Attempts will be made to make the names more representative of their home towns — for instance, the Buffalo Bills will become the Borts, and the Sabres will re-appear as the Buffalo Cold and Windys, With A Ninety Percent Chance of Snows.

"We are confident that the clarification dimension of the nominal rationalization of our participant member-units will enhance our spectator-recognition factor, and increase multi-media attention, ultimately resulting in increased financial resource generation," said Ziegler.

"We'll make more money," said a typically-blunt Harold Ballard, owner of the soon-to-be Toronto Rebuilding Years, and the Hamilton Free-Trade Sucks.

Some of the more interesting changes include the new Utah Side-walk-Rollers (ex-Jazz), the San Diego Wetbacks (ex-Chargers) — whose new logo is a forged green card, the Miami Coke-Smugglers (ex-Dolphins) — who will be going to all-white uniforms and play under aliases at night time, wearing dark glasses, and the Pittsburgh Polluters (ex-Pirates).

"I think it's great," said an unidentified Pittsburgh resident. "We kin keep da Steelers, but now we get da Polluters and da Blue-Collars. Hell, I never even seen a Pingwin, so's how'm I saposedit cheer for'm? Huh?"

Vancouver will be represented by the Fruitcakes (Canucks) and Weirdos (Lions), Calgary by the Ignorant Loudmouths in White Hats (Flames), Edmonton by the Cold White People (Oilers), Saskatchewan by the Whocares (Roughriders), Ottawa by the Who Cares (Rough Riders) and Montreal by the Sixty Percent Francophones Or Else (Canadiens). The stupid 'H' that nobody understands on their sweaters will be replaced by a Molson's logo.

The best new name is in Winnipeg, whose teams are that What Damn Divisions! (Blue Bombers) and the hockey team, which will once again be named for their best player's nickname. Instead of being called the Jets, after "Golden Jet" Bobby Hull, they will be given Dale Hawerchuk's nickname. From here on in, they are the Winnipeg Dummies.
