carnival queen candidates

The "Argosy" has learned just before press time the names of some of the candidates for Winter Carnival Queen although certain factions on the Mount 'A' Campus have attempted to keep this information confidential. The names we have at press time are as follows:

Miss Mimi MacAlpine, an ex-support of York House, is one of the Princesses. We extend our congratulations to this blonde, blue-eyed cheer-leader from Halifax.

The Vice-President of the SRC is our next contestant. Miss Sally MacKenzie, a 20-year-old senior from Moncton, has spent much of her time in student activities and with Mike's help she should have a wonderful Carnival.

The last scoop on our list is Betty Taylor, a Montrealer. This dark-haired beauty has spent four years on the campus and is a girl after our own heart.

The names of the other candidates were not immediately available.

fencing

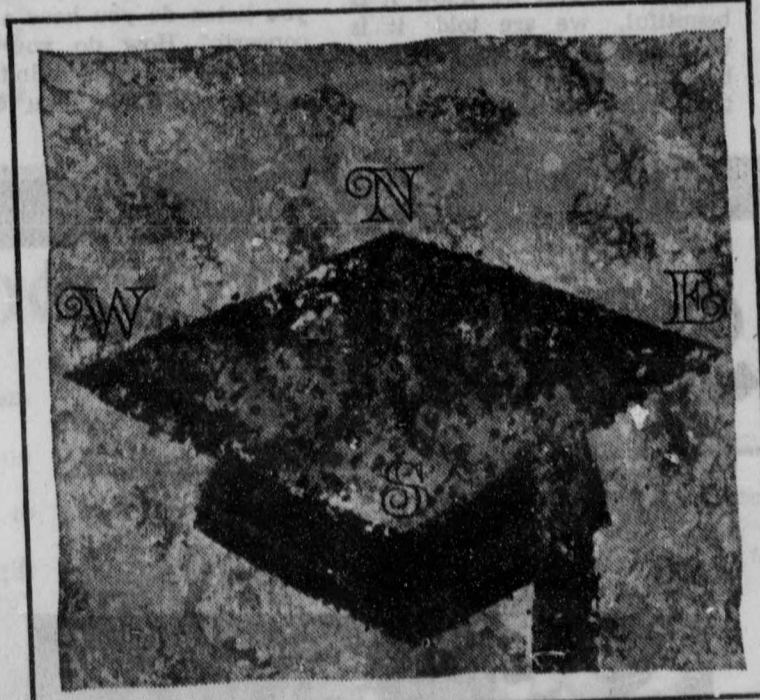

Tryouts for varsity fencing will be held next week down by the pond. Everyone interested should appear there in dungarees and sweatshirts and sneakers. Bring a hammer.
