

the Flour Mill in proper working order and in a state of thorough repair; 2<sup>d</sup> What is the value of the Saw Mill, and whether the same is in good order, and the machinery suitable for working purposes.
 If not what would be the cost of repairing the same and placing it in a satis-factory condition. The expense of obtaining a report in respect to these matters should be borne by Mr.
 Hoy and you should notify him to that effect, but the party who makes the in-spection and valuation should be selected by you.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant
