

D28202

-3-

capital, many eyes will have turned to the two symbolic figures of Peace and Freedom crowning the National War Memorial which has risen in our midst. To many thousands of our citizens, pausing as they pass, these figures, not less than the ideas for which they stand, must quicken Remembrance of a noble past and inspire courage and vision for a happier future.