

(1484) 3-

TO THE CATHOLIC PUBLIC.

..... 3
..... 9
..... 12
..... 24
..... 25
..... 27
..... 29
..... 33
..... 14
..... 34
OKS... 16
..... 36
..... 39
..... 40
..... 41
..... 45

In presenting this, our annual Catalogue of publications, we cannot refrain from admitting that in the present days book-reading is going out of fashion, a most deplorable fact, yet, nevertheless true ; it being largely substituted by the flimsy magazine, dime novel and light newspaper reading, despite every kind of inducements held out by Catholic publishers. Our youths and young men are adverse to serious studies, and to counteract this mental depression and literary exhaustion ; we cannot too strongly urge upon the Reverend Clergy, heads of Catholic Colleges, Convents and Schools, the necessity of cultivating a pure and high literary taste.

In issuing this list of publications now on our shelves, it contains not only our own, but that also of