ONE KENT ALREADY CONCEDED

The statement of "Hon." Mr. Evan-turel, another of the "purified" Ros-sites, who visited the con-stituency of West Kent last week in the interests of Rosism and Mc-Cog, conceding the loss to the Ros-sites cause of one of the Kents is very significant at the present time. Mr. Evan-turel's statement of concession is entirely unsolicited and is made through the Rosse organ in Windsor in an interview in which the Rosse chances are painted in a most rosy hued manner. It simply means that Rosism recognizes that it is routed in Kent, for while Mr. Evan-turel only visited West Kent, he has also gone to the adjoining eastern con-stituency he would have found reason to amend his prognosisation by including both Kents in the columns of those who will declare for clean and progressive Government on the 25th inst. The strength developed by Messrs. Clancy and Bowyer during the past week has been phenomenal. While the Rosse campaign has been largely devoted to silly and offensive personalities and side-issues which have nothing to do with the campaign, the people's cause has been growing in the hearts of the electors. It is a clean cause and is thus promoted by clean methods.

To-day a Rosse cabinet minister has openly conceded one Kent. All the Rosseites for the past week have privately conceded both Kents. Let the people now be guarded only against one thing—over confidence. As The Planet pointed out in the late Clements-Stephens campaign the battle is now won. But never be content to rest on your oars. Work on till the polls close making a ma-jority you will be proud of.

HON. S. H. BLAKE ARRAIGNS ROSS

At a crowded and enthusiastic meeting held in the town hall, Mit-chell, on Saturday afternoon in the interests of Mr. Nelson Monteith, Conservative candidate in South Perth, Mr. J. Lockie Wilson, presi-dent of the Ontario Farmer's As-sociation, read, amid tumultuous ap-ause, the following extract from a letter sent by the Hon. S. H. Blake to an officer of the South Perth Lib-eral-Conservative Association. After thanking the association for an in-vitation extended to him to address a meeting in South Perth, Mr. Blake wrote:

"I must say that it depresses me, looking back at our leaders as they stood fifty years ago, when I first took an interest in politics, and then see the centre figure in Ontario, the head centre for years of all manner of unrighteousness, now boldly on the platform, stating that he had nothing whatever to do with all that he himself had created.

"The lowering of the whole tone of the carrying on of the politics of our country; the presenting this to the young men as the means by which our land is to be governed is to be deeply regretted. When the man round whom for years all that we deplore has devolved, and without whom it could not have been carried on, blasphemously calls Heaven to witness that he has had nothing to do with it, one reaches a lower depth of villainy than I think can be found in any other land. From the standpoint of citizens who desire to have the country well and truly governed, I do not know that there is much choice between the man who brings into existence the villainy of which we complain, or the man who is such a downright idiot that living in the centre of a shaming corruption he is quite ignorant of improprieties, and has had nothing to do with them. What a low conception he must have of the ordinary inhabitant of our land, when he thinks that he is so blind and stupid to accept such a lie as truth! At the present juncture, it is not a question of how much bet-ter may be the men that we wish introduced into the public arena for the governing of our land, but it is a question of punishing those who have been tested and tried and found de-liberately at work debauching and degrading our land. I trust that you may be successful in aiding in this work."

CONSERVATIVES ARE "LOBSTERS"

In his nomination speech Mr. G. W. Ross announced that he intended to carry the war into Africa, and, suit-ing the action to the word, he pro-ceeded at once to describe the Con-servatives of Ontario as "lobsters."

term is a term of opprobrium. Mr. Ross often says he is a man of the Gladstonian type. Indeed, he claims to be a much greater man than Mr. Gladstone ever was. We can all be-lieve him! Gladstone never rose to that oratorical altitude at which it becomes possible to describe a body of fellow-citizens as "lobsters."—Tor-onto Mail.

GOT A FRIGHT

There is a local would-be drug clerk, quack doctor, and jack of all trades, who is at present having a few hours of uneasiness, the result of a practical joke played upon him by his former employer.

The young man in question is an innocent, harmless sort of fellow; rather clever, too; but his only no-table feature is a weak minded smile and an enlarged cranium.

A friend of the said young man became ill and the former drug clerk undertook to prescribe for him. He mixed up a harmless dose of drugs and administered it, at the same time not knowing whether the dose was harmless or not.

He wished to repeat the dose as his friend was not getting any bet-ter and so he called upon his former employer and named the mixture.

The employer knew that his form-er clerk was ignorant as to the na-ture of the ingredients and conceiv-ed a brilliant idea for a joke.

"What do you want that for?" he asked.

"I know what it is and what it is good for," was the naughty reply. "I want to give it to a friend of mine."

"What?" exclaimed the druggist in well feigned surprise. "Do you know if you gave that dose to anyone they would die in one day?"

"What's that?" in turn exclaimed the former clerk and his surprise and alarm was by no means feigned. "I have already administered one dose!"

"Well, it's all off," commented the druggist.

"All off with what?"

"All off with your friend," replied the druggist in sweet tones.

With that, the would-be quack made a rush for the door and hur-ried towards the railway station. It was not known whether he left town or not. The prescription he ordered is still waiting for him at the drug store.

There is no such thing as a harm-less cough. The trouble goes from bad to worse unless checked. Allen's Lung Balm cures the worst of colds. It allays inflammation and clears the air passages.

The foundation of true joy is in the conscience.

ARNER-BARNETT

Miss Grace Barnett, daughter of John Barnett, of the Customs Dept. Windsor, was united in marriage on Wednesday evening to Mr. Luke Arner, of Harrow. Miss Jennie Char-ter acted as bridesmaid, and Hal Grant as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed at St. Andrew's church, officiated by Rev. Mr. Tolmie, B. A. Both parties are well known here.

NOW THE FESTIVE SEASON IS OVER

Tune up your Stomach with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Get in Good Working Order Again.

Has the New Year's turkey left its traces in your stomach? Do you get up in the morning with a dark brow, taste in your mouth, is your head muddled and sort of half-aching? Is your day's work a bur-den? Do trifles worry you?

If you have any of these sym-ptoms it is time to pay attention to your stomach. It has been over-worked and needs help. Attend to it at once or you will drift into indiges-tion and from that to Dyspepsia. Help your stomach with Dodd's Dys-pepsia Tablets. They never fail to tone up the stomach and bring it back to a healthy condition.

Marie Ann Bujold, of Marie Cap, Bonaventure Co., Que., says, "For two years my life was a burden. I could not take the simplest food without having a pain across my stomach. One box of Dodd's Dys-pepsia Tablets cured me and I have had no return of the trouble."

TWO UNIQUE RAILROADS.

The rails of the Mexican Gulf Rail-road are laid on mahogany sleepers, and the bridges built of white marble. In West Mexico is a line with ebony sleepers and ballast of silver are drawn from the mines beside the track. The engineers constructing these railways had no other material on the route and found it cheaper to use these seeming extravagances than to import the ordinary material.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

The two C's, Clements and Clancy, are capital C's.

Was it the B. Mistake that I heard speaking about unpaid bills?

The People's own Ned will be at the Opera House to-morrow night.

Perhaps Robinette will tell why the Rosseites didn't put Gamey in jail.

Has the Banner ever heard the old adage of practice what you preach?

Another B.C. meeting Thursday night. The good meetings are coming fast.

It took Port Arthur many months to fall. I'd advise the police force to strengthen up.

H. C. stands for High Court and Herb Clements, both sore points with the B. Mistake.

They tell me that the London Free Press is not pushing in any B. Mis-take advertisements.

Ross tagged the ballots, but he won't get a chance this time to see how everybody voted.

I would suggest that the Banner issue a High Court writ for that Conservative 80 cent bill.

The London Free Press says five months is nothing when it comes to dealing with unpaid bills.

Judge Bell raked the police force somewhat after the manner that the Japs raked Port Arthur.

I'm a little hoarse yet, but I've got a few good rousing cheers left for Ned Clarke to-morrow aight.

It's a wonder the South Chatham pound-keeper didn't get tired with the exertion of drawing his salary.

Last year's Council paid $104 for impounding two animals. The work came high but had to be done.

Was it the Board of Works' duty to look after the impounding of the cattle and see that the work was done?

I'd like to know which Kent Evan-turel meant when he said one of the Kents would be redeemed. I'd like to post him on the other.

The Rosseites organs couldn't distin-guish a Mail & Empire editorial from a "Weak Men" ad. They think all editorials are like their own.

Coming events cast their shadows before them, and if the policemen had been up at the Police Com's meeting they would have seen some pretty healthy shadows.

And now the McCog orators are making a virtue of necessity, and asking the people to vote for Archie because he declared the Rosse Govern-ment was rotten and ought to go.

Did you see how easily my sick friend, Roy Chrysler, worked the popu-lar Newspaper for free advertising? That is, if it can be called "advertising" to put up your sign-board in a cemetery.

THE ROSS CAMPAIGN.
(From the Newsweek Receipt Book, which contains receipts for al-most everything—except unpaid bills.)

An Epitome of Puppy Dog Politics As Exemplified by the Pulver-ized Poggan.

Take an Organette that moans and sighs, And fills its columns cheek full of lies, And often gets whipped and always cries.

And has writs upon the brain—Flavor with "facts" one never knew. Put in a "weak men" ad. or two, Fill up with stuff that isn't true—And you have the Ross campaign.

THE PULVERIZER'S LAMENT.
The Sad Sign of the Ardent Apostle of Puppy Dog Politics.

Oh, that I never had been valiant and bold—Henceforth I'll always do what I am told.

I tried to lick Clancy—you bet, I was sold! And oh, how I longed for my ken-sel!

And out at North Buxton I ran against Shadd, and I was sold! He asked me some questions that made me quite mad.

I started to bust him—and now I feel bad! And I'll stay in my ken-sel.

THE LORD COULD TAKE HIS CHOICE.

Del Valentine tells of a Kansas clergyman he once knew who prided himself on his precise and scrupul-ous use of words. One Sunday this good man was praying for elevating grace and renewed working force.

"Oh, Lord," he pleaded, "waken Thy cause in the hearts of this congrega-tion and give them new eyes to see and new impulse to do. Send down Thy lev-er or lev-er, according to Webster's or Worcester's dictionary, whichever you use, and pry them into activity."—Kansas City Star.

DANGEROUS COLDS

Influenza, Bronchitis, Pneumonia or Consumption Often Follow a Neg-lected Cold—Avert the Danger by Keeping the Blood Pure and Warm.

Heavy colds strain the lungs, weak-en the chest, banish the appetite, cause melancholy. Pale, weak peo-ple, whose hands and feet are chilled for want of rich red blood, always catch cold. Their lungs are soft—the heart cannot send out blood enough to make them sound and strong. Then comes the cold and cough, rack-ing the frame and tearing the tender lungs. The cold may turn into pneu-monia, influenza, consumption or bronchitis—a lingering illness or a swifter death. All weak people should use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The rich red blood they make strengthens the heart, and it sends this warm, healing blood to the lungs, and once again the patient is a strong, long-lived, war-blooded man or woman. Mrs. Jane A. Kennedy, of Dougstown, Que., bears the strongest testimony to the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind. She says: "My sister, a delicate girl, took a severe cold last about seven years ago. We tried many medicines for her, but she appeared to be con-stantly growing worse, and we feared she was going into consumption. Often after she had a night with a racking cough, I would get up to see if she had spit any blood. At this stage a friend strongly urged me to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Within a month from the time she began to take the pills she had al-most recovered her usual health. Under a further use of the pills she is now well and strong, and I can re-commend the pills with confidence to every weak person."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a cer-tain cure for all blood and nerve troubles, such as anaemia, debility, lung complaints, rheumatism, neural-gia, St. Vitus' dance, partial paral-ysis, and the troubles that make the lives of so many women miserable. Be sure you get the genuine pills; Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE STAGE

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players."

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At the Grand—Marks Bros.—Jan. 23-30.

MARKS BROS. The Gospel Herald says of Marks Bros., who commence a week's en-gagement at the Grand next week: "A large and appreciative audience assembled at the Royal to witness the popular Marks Bros. in the heroic Irish comedy-drama, The Emerald Isle. The play was put on in a cred-ible manner, each and every mem-ber of the cast doing justice to their respective roles. Special mention might be made of Harry Starr as Robert O'Neil, the fugitive; Kenneth Griffen, the obstinate villain; Philip Blake, the duped girl; Travers, Frank Biglow, Widow McShane, Kate Mar-den, Edythe Winchester, and Kitty Marks as Molly McShane; while Ernie Marks as Con O'Callaghan, was more than a change in the role of the daring young Irishman, who was not afraid to risk his neck for his friends. The specialties were all good, while the great train robbery, by Joe Marks and his kinship, was well worth the price of admission."

Prices 10, 15 and 25 cents. Seats go on sale Friday at 10 a. m.

A SATISFACTORY PILE REMEDY Will cure the conditions causing the piles. Try Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterant; their frequent use prevents piles. No one ever known where the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills failed. Price 25c.
