

A MEMENTO

FOR OUR BOYS AS THEY COME HOME AGAIN

EVERY Sunday School, every Young People's Society or Club, every Congregation, will want to present a memento to the boys who have been in the Army, overseas or on this side, when they come back to their homes.

HERE IT IS.

It is a four-page folder, with rich and appropriate design embodying the figure of Victory and a beautiful arrangement of the flags of the Allies reproduced in four rich colors on soft antique finish stock.

It measures $8\frac{1}{2}$ x $10\frac{1}{2}$, and is enclosed in an envelope ready for presentation.

It has space for the name of the receiver, and of the School or Society which presents it, and for two or more signatures.

It may thus be kept as a Souvenir, or, if desired, will frame beautifully. Every home from which a man has gone with the forces will like to have one of these unique mementoes.

WHO SHOULD HAVE IT?

Every officer and every man who has been in the Canadian Forces, and every Canadian who has been in the Forces of Britain, or of the other Allies. It will appeal to all alike.

WHEN TO PRESENT THE MEMENTO.

At a social gathering, or in the Sunday School, or Young People's Society or Church ; for all the people will want to be on hand.

COMPLETE WITH ENVELOPE, 50c. EACH, POSTPAID
