A Temperance Lesson

Luke 12 : 35-48—Memory Verses, 1, 2.

Golden Text—Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when He cometh shall find watching.—Luke 12 : 37.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning ;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding ; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching : verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also : for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then Pe'ter said unto him, Lord speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all ?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season ?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming ; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken ;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required : and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

THE LESSON RETOLD

Jesus once told a parable, to show His friends how they must live, if they wished to be glad to meet Him when He came again at the last day.

"There was once," said Jesus, "an Eastern prince, who went one evening to a wedding. Not saying when he should return, he left his servants in charge of the house, telling them to keep watch for his home-coming. Hour after hour these servants waited, keeping their lanterns trimmed and their coats on, so as to be ready to open the gate as soon as they should hear their master's footstep. At last he came, and, as a reward to his faithful servants, he made them a supper and waited upon them himself. Blessed are those servants," said Jesus, "whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching."

To show how the heavenly Master may come unexpectedly, Jesus now said, "A man went to bed at night, and while he was asleep, thieves broke into his house and stole his goods. If that man had known when the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have allowed his house to
