The Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, has been visited by fire at different times. The last occasion was in 1906, when $350,000 worth of buildings were destroyed, including the Grand Stand.

Mr. W. J. Black has been appointed as Dominion commissioner of agriculture, succeeding the late Mr. C. C. James. Mr. Black was born at Mansfield, Ont., and is a graduate of Guelph Agricultural College and Toronto University. After editing the western edition of the Farmer's Advocate he was appointed, in 1905, president of the Manitoba Agricultural College, previous to coming to Ottawa.

Mr. J. Hendry, president of the British Columbia Mills Timber and Trading Company, died at Vancouver some few days ago. The late Mr. Hendry was a prominent factor in the lumber business of the Pacific Coast. He was also promoter of the Stave Lake Power Company, which was absorbed by the Western Canada Power Company; chairman of the Burrard, Westminster and Boundary Railway and Navigation Company; director of the British Columbia Sugar Refining Company; member of the Canadian Conservation Commission; honorary president of the British Columbia Lumber and Shingle Manufacturers, Limited; past president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association; and past president of the Canadian Forestry Association; and was also president of the Vancouver board of trade for two years.
