I pledged my faith to thee, my love, I pledged my faith to thee, At Andernach, in Germany, At Andernach, in Germany, Beyond the stormy sea. The birds had lulled the day to rest, With day had ceased their strain, The Vesper hour had long since rung, And night drew near again.

We wandered 'neath the turrets gray, My Gretchen, you and I. And 'mid the whisp'ring pines we've strayed. And heard the night-bird's cry. Beneath us lay the flowing Rhine, Blue in the moon's soft haze, And calmly glides a little boat Over the shimmering maze.

Above us stood the round tower old, With portals gaping wide, It cast a dark, uncanny shade, Far out upon the tide. And Gretchen, thou wert by my side, With hair of burnished gold, Sweet guardian of the spot, thou seem Cast in thy beauty's mould.

I took thy snow-white hand and said In that romantic scene In that romantic scene That I would ever more be true Come what might between, And sometimes when I sit and think, Thine image comes to me, With the days in far off Germany, Beyond the stormy sea.

COLLEGE OF OTTAWA.

ORGANIZATION OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

A Day of Happy Augury for the College.

As announced in our last issue the meeting of the Alumni of the College of Ottawa, called for the purpose of forming an Alumni Association, took place in one of the college study halls, on Tuesday afternoon, the 19th inst. The meeting, which was held in the old study hall, a room dear by a thousand sacred memories to every alumnus of the College, was very largely attended. There had been, as our readers will remember, appointed at the preliminary meeting of the Alumni of the College, held on the 25th of May last, a committee of seven charged with making arrangements, for the meeting of making arrangements for the meeting of the 19th inst., and with the framing of a constitution for the good government of the association proposed to be founded out of the former students and graduates of the College of Ottawa. That com-mittee was composed of Rev. Father Whelan (chairman), Mayor St. Jean, Rev. Father Coffey, Messrs. J. A. Pinard, G. J. O'Doherty, J. L. Olivier and J. R. Latchford, the two latter acting as joint secretaries. Though every member of Latenford, the two latter acting as joint secretaries. Though every member of this committee may be said to have dis-played the utmost zeal in carrying out the instructions of the meeting held on the 25th of May last, it will not, as indeed it cannot appear invidious, if we say that to the careful available available of the Per to the ceaseless exertions of the Rev. Father Whelan is mainly due the success that has so pre-eminently crowned the movement for the organization of an Alumni Association in connection with the College of Ottawa. Father Whelan. in the midst of pastoral labors that never fail to receive the fullest attention, labors and to receive the ratios attention, haves of an extent and success known only to Him whose worthy minister he is, man-aged to devote sufficient time to the work of the committee to bring its deliberations of the commutee to bring its denoterations to a most happy issue, as witnessed the meeting on Tuesday the 19th inst. Among those present were Mr. J. A. MacCabe, M. A., Principal of the Normal School, Ottawa; Rev. M. J. Whalen, P. P. School, Ottawa; Rev. M. J. Whalen, P. P. St. Patrick's, Ottawa; J. J. Curran, Q. It is not surprising that ruin, murder, suicide are Upwards of thirty years ago, the Lon-don Times prophesied that if the emi-gration and starvation policy were steadily pursued in Ireland, in another generation there would be no more Celts on the banks of the Shannon than there are Indians on the Hudson. Emigration, famine, fever, and political and social des-peration have since been doing England's ehest in Ireland; but the Shannon still runs through a populous country, and there are more millions of Irish on the banks of the Hudson than ever the Shan-non knew. Where is the gain to England?

We are pleased to know that there is about to be issued a work which should find a place in the library of every Irish-man, written by Mrs. McDougall nnd a place in the library of every Irish-man, written by Mrs. McDougall, ("Norah,") late correspondent in Ireland for the Montreal Witness. It is entitled, "The Days of a Life,"—a story descriptive of the days of a life of an Irish landlord. Although a work of fiction it deals ex-clusively with facts that came under the writer's personal observation, and every character in the tale is taken from life. It is a scrupulously authentic and con-vincing argument in behalf of a reforma-tion of the present condition of many of the Irish tenants. The author is an Irish Protestant lady, who has been for many years before the public as a writer of more than ordinary power. The book will contain 450 pages, on extra paper, and will be handsomely bound in cloth; price $1.50 by subscription only. This is a rare chance for lively book agents to make money, and all such we would recommend to write at once to W. Templeton, Gazette Office, Almonte, Ont.

Possession adds nothing to happiness; it only serves to convince us how for were to build such hopes upon attainment.
