A Peculiar Accident

Willis Miller, a farmer of Thessalon, was accidentally shot and killed by 13-year-old Russell Hagan, who had a rifle. Hagan was trying to shoot at Miller's request, a deer which had been in his old field, and shot it while the latter was carrying it. The shot went through the deer and struck Miller, who died a few hours later. The coroner's jury said death was caused by accidental shooting, but a charge of manslaughter is being laid.

Death Calls a

Prominent Picton Man

In the early morning of Thursday, Sept. 9th, Mr. Royal Church, aged 40 years, passed away at his home on Main Street West. Although he has been failing very perceptibly for several months he was not confined to his room during his last illness until the Friday preceding his death. Since his youth Mr. Church's health has been very poor. As a boy he met with an accident while hand-sleighting which injured certain nerves and resulted not only in life-long lameness but in frequent suffering. Later he met with another accident which injured his sight and resulted in blindness of one eye. When these misfortunes seemed almost too heavy to bear another trouble was visited upon him. An attempted act proved too much of a strain and hemorrhage of the lungs followed. During the past twenty years Mr. Church has had ninety-nine hemorrhages. Truly, he has been sorely tried.

Since locating in Picton Mr. Church has built up a successful canning and evaporating business, associated with his brother, Mr. Sylvester Church, and brother-in-law, Mr. John Hubbs; and has built up a reputation for fairness and honest dealing which is enviable. In politics he was a strong Conservative, and was earnestly interested in municipal affairs, oftentimes forcing himself to business and acting in the interests of the community when his physician's orders were for complete inactivity. He held the position of Reeve when ill-health compelled him to retire.

The funeral service was held at the house under the directions of the Rev. W. J. Wood, M.A., B.D., assisted by the Orpheus Quartette. Interment took place in Glenwood cemetery, Picton.

Besides his many friends, Mr. Church leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Mrs. Phelena Church; his mother, Mrs. Ruth Church, and one son, Ronald, living in Picton; one sister, Mrs. Mouch, of South Bay; one brother, Sylvester, of Picton; and four half-brothers, John of South Bay; Albert of Port Milford, Palen of San Francisco, Cal.; and Clark of San Luis Obispo, Cal.—Times.

PEOPLE OF FOXBORO BADE FAREWELL TO RESPECTED RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. A. Holgate and Son Thomas, Leaving for Bowmanville, Presented With an Address and Silver Tea Service—About 250 Were Present.

Last evening a large number of the friends at the village of Foxboro met in the Sunday school room to say good bye to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holgate and their son Thomas, who are moving to Bowmanville to continue their business in that town. As an indication of the high esteem in which Mr. Holgate and his family are held a large and representative gathering of about two hundred and fifty were present. At the time appointed the Rev. Mr. Jones, pastor of the Methodist church took the chair and after a few brief words called upon Mr. and Mrs. Holgate and Tom to come forward, when Mrs. MacFarlane on behalf of all the friends read the following address and Mrs. John Gossall made the presentation.

Address
To Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Holgate and Mr. T. Holgate.
Dear Friends:
A few of your many friends in and around Foxboro are taking advantage of the few remaining days of your stay among us, to assemble in this beloved church in which you have worshipped and served so long, to express to you some of the feelings we have ever cherished for you, also our high esteem, not only for your lifelong work of faith and labor of love but more especially for your own sakes.
In saying goodbye to you, Tom, we wish to express our sincere appreciation of your fidelity and efficiency as a member of our choir. You have ever been jovial and kind and ready to help at all times, and for efficiency and ability we can scarce expect that your place will ever be filled.
To you, Mrs. Holgate, we know we are adding goodbye to a devoted Christian, a loyal member of our church and a true friend, but we are well assured that your personal character and quiet winsomeness will win for you a host of friends wherever you may go.

To you, Brother John, your worth and your work make one feel the penury of words in estimating the value of a life extending over half a century in the kingdom of our blessed Master.
Some of us have seen you as a merry boy soundly converted to God, and this evening we are able to congratulate you upon having reached the years of a mature manhood, and that during the time you have endeavored to make good use of the talent a kind Creator has so generously bestowed we can all affirm: We perhaps have not appreciated as we should all your works on our behalf. We know that your thought foregoing reasons that in conclusion we ask you to accept this silver service as a token of our love and appreciation, and we all join in the prayer that your cup of mercy and blessing may still overflow and that you may dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Signed on behalf of your Foxboro friends.
