Choynski Appears at Tournament

Opinion Divided on the Result of His Go With Burley on the 25th.

Over 600 people filed into the D. A. A. building last night to see Choynski stripped and how he put up his mitts and then to mentally compare him with Burley in the effort to pick out the winner in the forthcoming match on the 25th.

The first event was a wrestling bout of two falls between Krelling and Hildebrand. Both are very clever, though Krelling is the heavier and in a match would probably win hands down.

The second bout Krelling's first hold was a hammer lock out of which Hildebrand slipped. Several minutes were spent in fiddling for an opening during which time each broke half Nelsons.

The next event was that of Choynski and Carroll in three two-minute rounds. The former came bounding on the stage with all the exuberance of a college athlete of eighteen.

All the contestants were greeted with generous applause as the audience was in good humor. It was unfortunate there was no one to be found who could go against Choynski who was within a mile or so of being his equal so that the mixup could have had a little ginger in it.

It was shortly after 9 o'clock when D. A. Cameron, president of the club, mounted the stairs leading to the ring and announced the opening of the summer season.

He thanked those present for their attendance and explained the apparent delay by saying that some of the contestants were late in arriving, but all were present then and were in the dressing room getting ready for the ring.

Le Roy Tozier had been decided upon as referee and master of ceremonies and Charles Boyle as official timekeeper. He particularly asked that the gentlemen refrain from smoking partially on account of the danger from fire and also on account of the presence of a great many ladies.

SKETCHES FROM THE D. A. A. OPENING ATHLETIC TOURNAMENT.

for their three rounds mixed things up pretty lively. The former needed no introduction as he and his work are both well known. Long is a pupil of Burley's and gave a good account of himself though clearly not a match for his instructor.

The next to the last event was a study in black and white in rag time with nothing barred. Alex McLachlan was in white, with his gloves, whitened and E. W. Ward was in black face with his gloves colored in the same manner.

Drunken Vocalist

Chas. Lester bursts into song as soon as he encases a few drinks and as he has a voice like a fog horn he can be heard warbling half a dozen blocks when under a full head of steam. Charles sings in the Russian tongue which makes it all the more noticeable among English speaking people. Charles was singing yesterday evening when met by Constable Carter who advised him to desist. Instead of heeding the advice he lifted up his voice until new arrivals and timid horses fresh from the Oregon range became frightened.

In police court this morning he pleaded guilty and said a few drinks always make him insane. Magistrate Wroughton told him he should, under the circumstances, practice total abstinence. A fine of $2 and costs or 5 days at hard labor was imposed and as Charles was shy the price the chances are he will a. Then be up and doing. With a heart for any fate. Still achieving, still pursuing. Learn to labor and to wait.

For Old Warhorse. The professional and best mounted talent of Dawson has combined to give Mr. Charles Roberts a royal testimonial and send off at the Auditorium Friday night of this week. Charles is known to everybody in Dawson. He is a veteran of the U. S. civil war who fought for the defense of the Stars and Stripes from '61 to '65. WAGER WAS CALLED OFF

By Ex-Chief and Present Fire Captain

Each Says the Other Was Timid About Signing Articles of Agreement.

The wager that has been talked of for the past two days between ex-fire chief H. A. Stewart and Captain Alex Macfarlane of fire hall No. 1 is off; the money being taken down today. Stewart deposited $1,000 that he could pick up a gang of men from the street and make the run made the morning of the Wilson warehouse fire under exactly the same conditions as made then by the fire department and have water running through hose at the scene of the fire within four minutes after the alarm was given.

Macfarlane covered the ex-chief's money but when it came to signing the articles of agreement this afternoon the terms could not be agreed upon and the money was taken down. Stewart says Chief Lester refused him the use of the apparatus for three trial runs and he called his side of the matter off. Macfarlane says the wager was called off because the big fellow crawled.

It is probable that the last of the matter has not yet been heard, but that some arrangements may be made by which the ex-chief will attempt to demonstrate his contention, as neither side are quitters. You will griff something if you are not at the Auditorium tomorrow evening.
