CONVENTION TO-MORROW

The Big Liberal Conservative Rally to be in Odd-fellows Auditorium

Among the Speakers will be James Clancy, H. S. Clements, M. P., and Wm. Gray, of London

Everything is in readiness for a mammoth convention of Liberal Conservatives in the Oddfellows' auditorium to-morrow. The local executive has left nothing undone to make this convention the largest and best ever held in the Maple City.

Delegates will be present from all over the riding of West Kent, for the purpose of appointing a candidate to contest the next Provincial election in West Kent.

Among the speakers secured to address the convention are James Clancy, Herbert S. Clements, M. P., and William Gray, of London, who made such a magnificent run against Hyman, of that city, in the last campaign. The convention will open at ten o'clock.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

Well, to-morrow's the day.

Yes, there'll be something doing to-morrow.

And don't forget the new market building. Push the good project along.

There will be some splendid addresses at the Big Convention to-morrow.

Who would want to champion the discredited and corrupt Stratton-Sullivan-Ross crowd?

Hear William Gray, the hero of the recent London campaign, at the big convention to-morrow.

To-morrow the friends of clean government will choose a winner.

The East Kent Liberal-Conservative executive will also meet to-morrow. That's the idea. Get ready all along the line.

All friends of clean government and purity in public life are cordially invited to the big West Kent convention to-morrow.

It's no wonder that some is coming to-morrow with the idea of "Deadwood Dick and his Gun" amateur style of ignorant officers.

These sensational smart-Alex sleuths of Detroit and Windsor should be given a lesson or two, and they'll be less ready to brandish their guns around respected colored residents of this city.

The following are the officers of the society and the ones who deserve the greater part of the credit for the success of the evening.

President—Mrs. Geo. S. Heyward. Vice-Pres.—Mrs. R. V. Bray. Secretary—Miss Verne Heyward. Treasurer—Miss Edith Holmes.

Nov. 18.—Mrs. J. N. Denholm has returned from London, where she has been visiting the Misses McDoom for two weeks.

P. S. Shillington is spending the Thanksgiving holidays with his parents here.

It is with much regret that we learn that the Rev. Dr. Jamieson and family will soon leave here for a larger field of labor in a suburb of Detroit. He has sent in his resignation to the Presbytery, which will meet on Dec. 15th. He has been pastor of St. Paul's, Bridge End; Bethel and English's for the last thirteen years, and has worked up a splendid congregation in each place. His place will be hard to fill. In town he is well liked by all who have the pleasure of his acquaintance, and he will be very much missed from our midst.

THANKSGIVING

The King's Daughters, one of Chatham's most energetic benevolent societies, held a Thanksgiving service at the Home of the Friendless yesterday afternoon.

The meeting was managed by Rev. Robt. McCosh and Mrs. J. C. Pritchard. Those who attended to assist in the service were: Misses Beatrice Smith, Phyllis Richardson, Irene Paterson, Jean Angus, Lily Thompson, Erva Thompson and Winnifred Arr-old.

Rev. Mr. McCosh preached a very eloquent and enjoyable Thanksgiving sermon, which was greatly enjoyed by the members of the Home. After the sermon, cake, candy and oranges were distributed among the inmates, and the whole visit was very acceptable to the inmates and greatly enjoyed by them. Mrs. Greene, the matron, deserves great credit for the excellent way in which she manages the Home.

GO TO NORTHVILLE

About forty of the members of Wellington Lodge, Royal Arch Masons of the city, took a trip to Northville, Mich., on Wednesday and returned to the city last evening, having spent Thanksgiving Day with the Masons of Northville.

Afternoon they were met at the Brush street depot by a delegation from the Northville Lodge and escorted via the electric line to Northville. That evening, Wellington Lodge conferred the third degree before an audience of between four and five hundred Masons, after which a banquet was given. At the banquet Geo. Massey was one of the toast masters and speeches were given by J. C. Knox, J. B. Rankin, Thos. Scullard, and O. L. Lewis, C. H. Gunn and Dr. Russell sang.

Those from Chatham who took in the trip have nothing but the very highest of praise for their Northville brothers. The Northville Lodge visited Chatham during the Old Boys Reunion last summer and this was the return visit.

Among those who went were Geo. B. Crumb, J. B. Rankin, O. L. Lewis, Geo. Massey, Jos. Turner, W. Irwin, Mr. Davidson, Thos. Scullard, R. Rid-dell, L. E. Tillson, John McKay, J. C. Kerr, Jas. Gray, W. J. Knox, C. H. Gunn, A. E. Jewett, Ed. Cape, Jas. Gemmill, F. D. Laurie, W. Mitchell, W. Hansen and others to the number of 40.

PLEASANT EVENING

The Golden Sunshine Circle gave a very enjoyable social evening at the residence of Mrs. J. M. Pike, corner of Murray and Adelaide Sts., Wednesday evening. This society, under the present officers, is doing a good work scattering sunshine and happiness in many places where it is much needed and where it would otherwise never be known. The society is indeed to be complimented on their excellent work and they are indeed worthy of hearty support in it.

The public appreciate the value of this society very plainly shown by the success of their social Wednesday evening. About $8 was realized from a silver collection. A good program was given, consisting of solos by Miss Helen Thomas and Miss May Peate, a male quartet by Messrs. Wilson, J. Smith, W. Smith and Angus, mixed quartets by Misses Smith and Heyward and Messrs. Smith and Smith, choruses, etc. The solos of Miss Thomas and Miss Peate were especially enjoyable. The Sunshine ladies are very thankful to all who assisted in making the social the success it was.

The following are the officers of the society and the ones who deserve the greater part of the credit for the success of the evening.

President—Mrs. Geo. S. Heyward. Vice-Pres.—Mrs. R. V. Bray. Secretary—Miss Verne Heyward. Treasurer—Miss Edith Holmes.
