bound trp, whatever are, to her. other casualty, they may unload, reload, tranship, or sell their cargoes. The imperent this afternoon at three o'clock. showing of stress of weather or some this regard was highly appreciated by our fishermen and by the tory press. It was only a few days ago that the dominion From Our Own Telegraphic Rernment organ in Nova Scotia, the Halifax Herald, particularly emphasized published elaborately prepared statistics to show that by the exclusion of Amercan fishermen from the privilege of pur- Cable, Ar chasing supplies in Canadian ports and transhipping cargoes during the past two years, Maritime Province nanermen had been materially benefitted, and placed in good position. It has given better catches and infinitely better prices for fish. This same point has also been taken by so high an authority as Capt. Gordon, commander signer better catches and infinitely better prices for fish. This same point has also been taken by so high an authority as Capt. Gordon, commander of the cruiser Acadia. In his report to the government he claimed that the one great point in favor of our fishermen was the fact that Americans were excluded from the privilege of purchasing supplies in our ports, an advantage which far more than compensated for the exclusion of our fish from the United States markets. The withholding of the privilege to tranship cargoes in Canadian ports was important to his mind. American appliances for the taking of fish were destructive and would, in a short time, exhaust our fisheries. The fact of the fishermen having to proceed to American ports to tranship considerably shortened their time in their work of destruction. Thus the Canadian contention was of prime importance to the country as well

That there has been a total surrender of our rights and privileges is too clear. The fishing industry of these provinces was growing to astonishing proportions and was developing a wealth and stimulating an enterprise in action that was sure to have been productive of immense benefits to a highly deserving portion of the dominion. But the very policy which encouraged this development, and stimulated enterprise, is now by treaty placed beyond our country are practically given away to another and more wealthy nation.

It has been he fate of Canada, under tory administration, to submit to many hardships, but this last is the most severe we have had to contend with.

An unseemly quarrel is going on between Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin, the tory member for the western division of Asteroic for the western developed and in the first our was a large a formerly member for the western division of Asteroic for the western division of Asteroic for the western developed and in the first our was a large a formerly member for the western division of Asteroic for the submandable for the contend with the contend the counter at the distribution is to be given in Taylor's hall by the Boyer of the Mr. Geof. tween Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin, the tory member for the western division of As nniboia, and Mr. W. Dell Perley, who represents the eastern division of the same district, and whose political experience with Mr. Charles Burpee, of Sunbury, led him to decide upon seeking pastures new. Mr. Perley alleges that Mr. Davin is taking the credit for all the egislation which was obtained for the egislation which was obtained for the northwest at the last session of parliaand the other members of the northwest. Mr. Perley won't put up with it. Mr. Davin, Mr. Perley admits, may be a very clever man, but Mr. Davin is not going run the Northwest Territory. Mr. Davin in reply to Mr. Perley states in efmodest, that he has not sought to push | see riegina the other day and asked Mr. Perley to attend it, knowing that 1e. could not be present. Here he is said to have dressed Mr. Perley dcwn. Mr. Perley hearing whit Mr. Davin had sa d

CROCKET - - - - EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR a fool and said of him that he was incapacitated during the greater part of the rel will be remains to be seen. In the meantime the two tory representatives are presenting a pretty spectacle.

The condition of the Crown Prince of past, reports the most contradictory have gone the rounds of the press concerning him. At one time the most favorable opinions are expressed as to his recovery, at another his condition is alarming. Reports which have gone forth during the last week, if they can be relied upon show that the end is not far distant. The operation recently performed upon him seems not to have improved the Prince's condition. Whatever the outcome is under the property of the death, she lived a constant member and died trusting in Jean. mtention in respect to the three mile Reports which have gone forth during material point in the dispute has been show that the end is not far distant. It agrees to tranship considerably shortened their time in their work of destruction. Thus the Canadian contention was of prime importance to the country as well as to the fishermen. The surrender is unjust and humiliating.

In the settlement of the headland question there have been slight concessions on both sides. Other points of difference have been settled, some, it will be observed, by Canadian concessions, others again, and we must confess not material points, by the Americaus allowing our contention to prevail.

The people of this enterprising little town (something less than a thousand inhabitants) have gradually recognized "the power of the press" until they have decided to issue a local paper of their own. To-day its with pride and satisfaction that we point to The Advance and it is with a degree of thankfulness that we name as its editor, the Rev. Dr. Walker. He was born and educated in England, though he is now a citizen of the United States. With Dr. Walker, enterprise and integrity at the helm, we bespeak for The Advance a prosperous and useful fature. The paper is a present printed in Derter, Me., and forward ed direct to this office for distribution; but we trust at no detant day we will
