Canadian Caravan Train Ends Tour of France

SAYS WOMEN'S DRESS A CRYING SCANDAL

Cardinal Logue of Ireland
Issues Pastoral on Immodesty in Dress.

Armagh, Ireland, March 3.—Modern woman's tendency toward daring dress and the growing "mania" for dancing are scored by Cardinal Logue, Primate of Ireland, in his Lenten pastoral to the Archdiocese of Armagh. The pastoral, which was read in all the Catholic churches on Sunday, says:
"If there be one thing before all others of which Ireland was justly proud, it is the reserve and scrupulous modesty of her women and girls. In every country to which they have been scattered this distinction clung to them. Whether it be from a general loss of that tendency of conscience or a slavish devotion to fashion, I for us can pride ourselves on this no longer."

"The dress, or rather the want of dress, of the women of the present day is a crying scandal. There seems to be rivalry among them as to how little dress they can wear without incurring universal reprobation. We see enough of this in everyday life, but if we can judge from the advertisements in the newspapers, we do not see the worst."

"What shocks one most is to see persons presenting themselves for Holy Communion in these dresses. I often have felt the impulse to pass them over. In Rome, the Cardinal Vicar, no doubt with the approbation of the Pope, has published a decree forbidding the clergy to give Holy Communion to those who present themselves in unbecoming dress. I fear his example must be followed if the scandal is to be stopped."

"Another abuse is dancing, especially all night dancing. Latterly there seems to be a regular mania for dancing. As to the character of the dances I know nothing, especially those imported dances, some of the names of which I see in the newspapers, and certainly the names are bizarre enough. Those who do know, tell me they are most objectionable on the score of morality. They seem to be an outcrop of the corruption of the age."

There should be no unemployment in Ireland, says the Cardinal, with a great part of the country in ruins. "Even the chief streets of the capital are an eyesore and a disgrace," he writes. "This destruction must be paid for, and large sums are daily awarded as compensation. Idle hands should be engaged in building up the ruins. If building cannot proceed at once, preparation can be made by clearing away the ruins. Besides there is other skilled labor involved in the restoration."

"It should be seen to that those who are awarded large sums in compensation do not pocket the money and clear out, leaving the work behind. The Dail is engaged in interminable discussions on speculative questions such as could wait. The people can get on very well for a time at least without the luxury of broadcasting, but they cannot go on living without bread."

PITIFUL CASE OF A CRIPPLED VET

North Sydney, N. S., March 1.—The North Sydney Town Council has announced an appeal by Mayor Finn on behalf of a crippled Great War veteran who accepted a small gratuity and a D. S. C. R. technical course in lieu of pension. The council has received authentic information that the man is unfit to work and his three young children have been subsisting on one meal of dry bread and water each day for many years.

GUARD OF HONOR.

Men wishing to join Guard of Honor for Thursday afternoon, March 6th, 1924, and who have not already been in that name through M. G. Company or C. O. T. C. kindly meet at The Armory, Monday evening, March 3rd, between 7 and 8.30 to draw uniforms.

Where the Government Could Save

[Ottawa Journal]
Counting seasonal indemnities the Dominion Government Cabinet costs in salaries just $226,000 a year. The cost of the United States Cabinet (which governs 11 times as many people) in salaries is $108,000 a year.
Doesn't this suggest something to Mr. King, in his eleventh hour passion for economy?

To come straight to the point, does Canada need a Secretary of State? What does he do? In most countries the Secretary of State has charge of foreign affairs. In Canada that duty is performed by the Prime Minister, who is also Minister for External Affairs. As a matter of fact all that the Canadian Secretary of State does is to look after the incorporation of companies—a duty clearly belonging to the Department of Trade and Commerce. He could be dispensed with tomorrow, and all the emoluments and paraphernalia that goes with his office abolished, and there wouldn't be as much as a tremor in the administrative machine.

There is the Solicitor-General. What does he do? In England the Solicitor-General pleads court cases for the Government and this is likewise true of the United States. In Canada it is only on rare occasions that the Solicitor-General appears in court. As a matter of truth, long periods have frequently elapsed when the Government got along without a Solicitor-General—and nobody suffered. This portfolio, and all that goes with it, could be wiped out tomorrow, and officials of the Justice Department could exercise its functions without the slightest loss.

SEIZE 150 CASES OF BELGIAN ALCOHOL

Motor Launch Picked Up by Authorities Near Boston.

Boston, March 1.—The first blow was struck at the rum fleet stationed 18 miles east of Thatcher's Island, when the harbor police early today seized a motor launch making its way ashore from the liquor line. One hundred and fifty cases of Belgian alcohol were found and confiscated, and the officers arrested Frank LeCourt, of Lowell; Lester M. Joyce, of Cambridge; Lawrence Benett, of Digby, N. S., and Edilio Cardinello, of Boston.
The launch, said to be Belgian, was named the Delta, and was believed to have put in from the British rum running steamer Newton Hall.

SMALLPOX IN ONTARIO.

Windsor, Ont., March 3.—Three new deaths from smallpox have taken place during the 24 hours ending last night. Two new suspects have been quarantined.
