Retail trade in seasonable heavy weight wear tribution next fall and winter. Retail trade in seasonable heavy weight wearing apparel has been retarded by mild weather, and stocks are reduced by bargain sales that return little profit. Buyers have arrived in large numbers in the local jobbing dry goods market, placing fair orders at the lower prices named on some descriptions, and this forward business was also liberal at other large centres. Mercantile collections continue to improve, although still backward at many points. Industrial news is slightly more encouraging on the whole, but there is much idle machinery, and the coal output has been curtailed on that account together with the tardiness of winter. Immigration declined to 66,574 in December, or about one-half the November total, yet the year 1907 far surpassed all records with an aggregate of 1,333,166. Accepting the largest estimate of emigration, the net gain for the year was over 800,000. For this month thus far, however, it is reported that emigration has been four times immigration.

Many Firemen Hurt.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—One fireman is supposed to have been killed, more than a score of others were injured and property valued at half a million dollars was destroyed in a fire which devastated the Mayer "building, a seven storey brick building, and the Hotel Florence, 163-167 Adams street, early to-day.

The fire broke out in the basement of the Mayer building and spread so rapidly that when the first detachment of firemen arrived the entire building was in flames. A strong north wind swept the flames to the adjacent hotel building and in a few minutes 'that structure was also a roaring furnace. The walls and roofs of both structures collapsed about an hour later, earrying down with them an entire company of firemen. All except one, James Gallagher, of truck company No. 1, were rescued. His body is believed to be in the ruins.

COUPLES RACE.

These races serve to bring out more real enthusiasm than any other form of roller amusement or sport, so, to please the people, the Alexandra is running a series of gentlemen's races on Saturday nights, in which some of the fastest skaters in the city are taking part. On Saturday evening last six teams were entered, and three very fast heats resulted, the first heat being won by J. Jaggard and H. Iles, the second by A. Peters and J. Hamburg, and the fimal, which was more than exciting, and had the crowd of 500 on their feet all the time, by Peters and Hamburg, in the fast time of 3.211.5, which was markedly good, considering that they had never skated together before. Look at the big ad, for this week's attractions, which will, as usual, be of an interesting and fascinating order. To night there will be a two-stepping contest for gentlemen skating alone. This will be a series, with a gold medal for the finals. To-morrow night will be the last of the present couples race series, so all those who contemplate getting into the finals had better enter their names at once, as this will be their last chance These races serve to bring out more real enthusiasm than any other form of Henry Bryant. colored, died at the City Hospital this morning, in his 54th year. He had been ill for upwards of two years. He leaves a widow and five children. The funeral will take place from H. Dodsworth's parlors, to the A. M. E.
