Dear Sirs,—We have nothing but good to say of Mathieu's Syrup and can conscientiously describe it as the most popular and successful Cough Medicine we handle. Owing to the absence of any drug store in this vicinity there is a great variety of proprietary medicine sold in the course of the year, and Mathieu's Syrup pre-eminently leads in its own class. Yours sincerely,
D. MARTIN.

LETTER FROM MR. DOWNEY.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sirs—My practice is to take up the first one of the evening papers which happen to come in my way, and a glance at the first item commences my reading thereof. I never read political matter for the reason that I strongly disapprove of the tone and temper in which our political discussions are carried on. As a rule, instead of tending to aid public opinion in arriving at sound judgments in matters political, our newspaper discussions of such are mere Party hananagues, appeals to Party feeling or prejudice that bias the minds of readers and debar the consideration of policies on their merits. This is not my conception of a newspaper's mission and consequently I do not read current political matter, and so I did not see the letter of your correspondent, "Western Shore Man," in last Thursday's issue of the Telegram until my attention was directed to it to-day.

With reference thereto I ask you to permit me to say that your columns have been made an unwarranted use of for the publication of the letter in question.

It is hardly worth your while to do so, but you could ascertain this by asking your correspondent to name the man whom he would like to have succeed me in St. George's, and his reasons for desiring the change. He will not give you the facts, and I may be compelled to do so, and if I am, it will make an interesting disclosure that will show that your correspondent, in his letter, established the truth of the axiom that "language was given to man to enable him to disguise his thoughts."

If your correspondent can name a single instance of neglect, on my part, of the District's interests, or a failure to procure for it the maximum possible in the way of grants, I will promise to allow his man a "walk-over" in the coming elections.

You will note, Mr. Editor, that your correspondent does not charge me with anything other than being "the saviour of the country from Confederation." This shows his absolute dearth of material in the way of accusations, as I never made such a claim, and I don't know that anyone made such for me unless it be the writer, not the signer, of the letter in question.

I could, however, advance claims to having very materially aided my District's development in the time that I have had the honor of representing it, and for your correspondent's benefit I will here prove this to be correct, though so far I have never mentioned the matter, even in St. George's District, that has been materially advantaged thereby, as has also a great part of the country.

In 1909, with the sanction of the Prime Minister, I visited Gloucester with the view of interesting the large fish firms there in the possibilities in Newfoundland for an expansion of their business. It is well known by everyone that shortly after that visit the Gorton Pew Fisheries Co., of Gloucester, became buyers, to a considerable extent, of our fish, and their purchases have increased each year since, and they will continue to increase in volume each succeeding year, as the Gorton Pew Co. are now buying fresh fish as well as salt bulk.

St. George's District has benefited, and will continue to benefit more largely in future, from this innovation, and many other parts of the country have also been largely benefited by the operations of this Co., and that I am entitled to at least a portion of the credit for their being in business in Newfoundland to-day, the following letter shows:-

"Gloucester, Mass., 5th Oct. 1911.

"Mr. J. F. Downey, 5th Oct. 1911.

"St. John's, N. F.
"Dear Sir,—We have your letter of September 20th, in which you 'call our attention to the interview we had with you in June, 1909.

"We can assure you that our 'branching out and doing business in your country' is due, in no small measure, to the interview we had with you, as you opened our eyes to the possibilities in your country. We, no doubt, will do more 'business in Newfoundland as time goes on, and we trust that we will have the pleasure of meeting you 'some time in the near future.

"Yours truly,
"(Sgd.), Gorton Pew Fisheries Co."

"To-day, Mr. Editor, the Gorton Pew Fisheries Co. is rapidly extending its business by acquiring premises and appointing agents in scores of places on our coast. Our fishermen largely sell to this Company, realizing that such is the readiest and most profitable manner of disposing of their fish. It goes without saying that the operations of the Gorton Pew Co. are absolutely certain to be vastly increased in Newfoundland in the very near future.

I refer to this matter now, Mr. Editor, to show your correspondent that in this direction my term, as representative of St. George's District, has not been barren of results. There are several other directions in which I think I may with equal justice claim

The McGregor Estate.

BENEFICIARIES IN THIS CITY.

Brooklyn, N.Y., June 9.—A report of the Transfer Tax State Appraiser, on file to-day in the office of the Clerk of the Surrogate's Court in New York City, on the estate left by Harriet McGregor, late cousin in St. John's, Nfld., of Mary Ann Clancey, of No. 70, Hayward Avenue, shows that when the decedent passed away on January 31, 1912, she left an estate of $217,321.80.

This sum represents $42,666.76 in cash, on hand, and in 16 banks; $14,756.85 in household furniture, pictures, jewelry, silverware, and six bonds and mortgages on some property in New York City; and $159,898.19 in securities.

Out of this sum, $217,321.80, however, there are expenses of $4,761.84—funeral, $523.30; administration expenses, $929.25; personal debts, $879.61, and executor's commissions, $2,329.68—charged up against the estate which brings the estate down to the $212,559.96 figure and which, under the decedent's will of January 26, 1912, passes over to many of her friends, two churches, a college and two of her cousins, William J. Doyle, of Halifax, being her other cousin, there being no other surviving relatives of her's, each of her two Canadian cousins receiving only the sum of $250 as their share out of the estate.

The decedent's reason for not bequeathing them any larger sum, according to one of her paragraphs of her will, follows: "I have no immediate relatives whatsoever, and no relatives in the United States, and, hence, have remembered my friends, advisers, and acquaintances of long standing. The only relatives I have are, William Doyle, and Mary Ann Doyle Clancey, my cousins, of Canada, of whom I have seldom heard since childhood, and with whom I have never had any intercourse or correspondence. I give to each of them the sum of $250 as a token of my remembrance."

To four of her New York friends, the decedent left the following: Mary Lewis, of No. 829 Park Avenue; Jane MacKenzie, of No. 2,352 Gleason Avenue, Westchester, N.Y.; and Andrew J. Shipman, of No. 27 Wall Street, who is the executor, the sum of $47,076.65 to each, and the sum of $45,076.66 to Catherine Black, of No. 200 West 99th Street, the house in which the decedent lived.

The decree on this report, it is expected, will be signed by Surrogate Fowler, of the Surrogate's Court, in New York City, in the near future.

The Servant Problem.

In view of the ever-increasing difficulty of obtaining and retaining satisfactory domestic servants it is highly important to adopt every means which will reduce the work of the house.

It has been proved by the experience of many that the use of gas for cooking heating and hot water supply, make it possible to do with fewer servants, easier to keep those you have, and a less serious matter to have none.—Inlet, God.

Special Service for Men

To-morrow afternoon, at the Kirk, at 3 o'clock, a special service will be held for men, conducted by Rev. Dr. McPhie, who will address them on the subject of "A Man's Last Year." It is expected that the Nfld. Highlanders will be present. At the morning service at 11 o'clock, the subject will be "Buying up Opportunity," and at the evening service at 8 o'clock, "Leaving the Old Home." Those are the closing services of Dr. McPhie and are anticipated with much interest. A cordial invitation is extended to all visitors.

INTER-COL CRICKET.—The opening game of the second round of the Inter-Collegiate Cricket fixtures will take place this evening, the St. Bon's and Collegians competing.
