Personal.

Miss Ruby Tessier, sister of Mrs. W. . Herder, leaves by the City of lydney to-day to enter Western Hos- Govern pital, Montreal, to go in training as a rofessional hurse.

Mr. Thomas Murphy, painter, had a telegram Thursday from New York saying that his sister, Miss Eva Murphy, had been married there that day to Mr. Wm. Wilson, of Jersey City, machiniat. After the ceremony the couple went to Tanga, Florida, where Mr. Wilson carries on business. The bride is a native of this city and is well known and respected.

Slipped and fell over them, his head striking the sidewalk with great force and rendering him unconscious. He received an ugly cut and bruise on the side of his head and his shoulder was badly hurt. The police who were near conveyed him into Connors drug store where Dr. Campbell who was called by phone attended the man, coming in a few minutes. While Mr. Petrie was in the pharmacy. Miss Petrie, his daughter, happened to pass by heard that her parent had met an
