BRYAN'S RESIGNATION AFFECTS WALL STREET.

NEW YORK, June 9. Bryan's resignation made an im-ression on Wall Street, prices delining all round.

BRITISH PRESS COMMENT. LONDON, June 9.

Surfeited as the British public has een with war sensations, Bryan's withdrawal has created an unusual amount of interest and discussion, hecause it has given an unexpected turn to political events in America. The pers give their largest headlines to Bryan. The Evening Standard says:
"Bryan's resignation appears to foreshadow a more decided American policy, though not necessarily intervention or war. It was some vision of this, no doubt, which led Germany to despatch an unofficial emissary to talk unofficially of peace in the States. He can be disavowed more easily than Count Yon Bernstorff when octhan Count Von Bernstorff, when occasion requires. England will not emulate Germany in attempting to bully or cajole neutrals as to their policy. We have expressed our hope that the States will not be drawn into the conflict, but it is becoming increasingly difficult for her to remain outside."

sons of some of them still were hanging about theatres and music-halis. While that was going on, the Baron contended, they might save themselves the trouble of looking for workingmen. Talking of conscription and compulsory service, he said that men who refused to work should be made to fight, whether they like it or not some of them still were hanging about theatres and music-halis.

BOMBARDMENT OF GALLIPOLI. A Havas despatch from Athens, filed yesterday, says that the Allies have resumed the offensive at several points in the Gallipoli Peninsula since Friday. According to a despatch from Mytllene, the attack was begun in the morning by a general bombardment of the enemy's posi-tions with the aid of the fleet. A fierce struggle all along the line fol-ed, and fighting continues. CASUALTIES AT VENICE.

ROME, June 9.

The Italian official version of the Austrian aerial raid upon Venice yesterday, is contained in the following statement: An enemy aeroplane flew over Venice and dropped a number of bombs, which slightly damaged several private houses. Fragments of projectiles crushed a woman's arms, ind struck a young girl in the head.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK.

LONDON. June 9. Amoncial announcement was made by Balfour, Secretary of the Admiration. I believe this nation and it is the purpose of the note now going forward to secure from Germany a definite guarantee with reference to safeguarding American lives and property to apply to disputes between the states and thirty countries with identical with all other German prisoners in England. He failed to state when or where the German submarine was sunk, merely saying that it had been sunk recently. Announcing tion, make war practically sion reached that the Lusitania was the revision of the policy regarding the treatment of German submarine try governments represent which citizens of the United States prisoners, Balfour said: "While this the character of the acts with which these persons are concerned, it must be remembered that submarine attacks on defenceless vessels are not the only violations of the laws of humanity of which the Germans are guilty. The Government therefore is of the opinion that the submarine problem cannot now be isolated, and that the general question of responsibility should be reserved until the end of the war." Balfour added that the Government's decision would be the American Embassy.
