Parcel Post for Mfld. Expeditionary Forces!

The attention of the public is drawn to the very urgent necessity of strictly observing the regulations published by this Department from time to time concerning the despatch of parcels to members of the Regiment overseas and the following particulars should be strictly observed:

- (1) Parcels must not exceed eleven pounds.
- (2) Parcels should be addressed with the Regimental number, rank, name and surname of addressee, followed by the last known address of the Unit with which the individual was serving; for example:

No. 0978 Cpl. John J. Kent,
2nd Battalion
The Royal Newfoundland Regt., Hazeley Down Camp,
Winchester,
Hant's Camp,
England.

- (3) Parcels should bear the name and address of a second addressee to whom the parcel may be delivered or forwarded, if it should prove impossible to deliver to the first. The Original address should be written on the FRONT of the parcel where the postage stamps and customs declaration are affixed, and the second or alternative address should be written on the BACK of the parcel.

- (4) If second address is not furnished at the time of posting and delivery cannot be effected, the contents of the parcel, unless of exceptional value or of a personal nature, will be turned over to the Military Authorities for distribution.

- (5) Parcels containing articles of personal nature or of special value will be returned if request for their return, in case of non-delivery, is made by the sender, such request to be written on the cover of the parcel at the time of posting.

- (6) The procedure outlined in (4) and (5) is adopted at the suggestion of the British Post Office, to prevent the waste of a large quantity of perishable food stuffs which form the contents of 90 per cent. of parcels sent to soldiers.

- (7) Parcels should be packed securely.
- (8) Attention is drawn to the Notice concerning Christmas parcels recently published by the Postmaster General. All Christmas mail for B. E. F. should be posted in time to arrive at the Pay and Record Office, London, not later than the end of November.

Lord Robert Cecil, Assistant Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replied that no statement could be made in that connection at the present time. Havelock Wilson was to-day, returned unopposed for South Shields. In the House of Commons, replying to R. P. Houston, the Rt. Hon. Diplomatic advices from Amsterdam to-day say that the Peasants in Lithuania have revolted, and thousands of them have joined other deserters, who are hiding in the forests and swamps. It is said that the revolts are spreading through the whole country.

DECREASE AND INCREASE.

Peace and Punishment.

Peace cannot show her smiling face,
Until the Hun on bended knees,
Forgiveness asks for all he did
To outrage the Humanities.

There's but one place to end this war,
And that is where it did begin;
As conquerors, our victor troops,
Shall tread the streets, O proud Berlin!

The German people must be taught
That all who trust in Brutal Force,
Helpless, undone, shall writhe beneath
Humiliation and remorse.

The Mailed Fist; The Will to Win;
Are even as a broken reed;
The strength that is of righteousness, O'erthrows the Lords of Lust and Greed.

O Great Imperious Germany!
Humbly thou dost decline;
And thou has burnt upon thy brow,
The brand of Everlasting Shame!

O Would Be Ruler of the World!
Can words, mere words, proclaim thy worth?

God grant thou shalt exist for aye,
A homeless outcast on the earth.

O Justice, Truth! to thee belong
Domitian's and all hands and seas;
The only source of lasting strength;
The Great Eternal Verities!

O Ye that mourn for those that fall,
Do Ye not hear a pleading voice?
"All that we did for has been won;
Weep not; with us, Rejoice!"

WITH OPEN ARMS.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Oct. 28.— Lille to-day opened wide her gates in formal reception to a division of the Fifth British Army. She paid a supreme tribute of gratitude to these representatives of the army, which a few days ago released her from the heavy hand of German bondage.
Lille could have done no more. She gave freely from her heart and no victors could have had a more noble reward than that given to the British,
who when Lille had been freed, chival-rously stepped aside and requested French troops to be the first to enter the capital of the department of the north. The main ceremony was held in the centre of the city, about the statue of the Spirit of the Resistance of 1792, where German officers were parading but a brief time ago and impressing their arrogance upon the unhappy inhabitants. Trains are now running between Lille and Paris, and a newspaper is being published for the first time since the German occupation.

137 BODIES RECOVERED.

DAWSON, Y.T., Oct. 28.
A special despatch from Skagway to the Dawson News says, 137 bodies have been recovered from the steamer Prince Sophia, and are now in Juneau. Small boats are taking other bodies to Juneau. All bodies recovered were life belts.

BRITISH IN ITALY.

LONDON, Oct. 28.
Progress towards Oderzo, on the east side of the Piave River, is indicated in the official statement on operations by British troops on the Italian offensive issued at the war office to-night.

ITALIAN OFFICIAL.

ROME, Oct. 28.
The text of the official statement issued at the war office to-night reads:
The battle continued fiercely during last night and to-day, and is in the course of full development on the front of the twelfth and eighth armies. In spite of the enemy's very lively opposition we have maintained and extended our bridgehead. North of the Orme Trent we gained advantages. East of Grave Di Pappadol, the enemy was attacked with extreme violence by the Fourteenth British Corps, and by the tenth Italian corps, and has yielded. Our troops have broken through the enemy's lines, liberated several villages and entered San Lucio, Di Piave and Vazzola. They are at the gates of Montebelluno.
We have captured prisoners and guns but the number has not yet been determined. In Albania our troops are closely pressing the enemy's rear-guards.
On the morning of Oct. 27 they entered Alessio. They are marching on San-Giovanni Di Manua.

BIG CAPTURE.

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS, Oct.
29. (By the A.P.)—Fifteen thousand prisoners were captured by the Allies in their advance across the Piave.

NO NOTICE TAKEN.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Oct. 28.
Generally speaking, the morning newspapers give scant space to editorial discussion of the German and Austrian notes. These papers which do comment, epitomize the situation by declaring that any decision on an armistice is now in the hands of the Allied War Council.

A Good Addition.

S. Milley's window the past few days has contained a very interesting picture. Two other paintings have been added to the window, one placed on either side of the first. One of these is a picture of the flags of every nation arrayed against the Central Powers, whilst the word "pluribus unum," the motto of the United States, are lettered in the centre. The second is that of America, pressing forward, white heading a poem underneath, are the words, "Forward, My Soul!" The pictures are both so brilliant in color and so interesting in theme that many people were compelled to stop and mire them.
