PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

TO-NIGHT'S GAME.

The third game of the League series will be played to-night at 7 o'clock when the Red Lions will use their best endeavors to push the B.I.S. off the path that leads to the Pennant. Following will likely be the lineups:

Red Lions:	Pitcher	B. I. S.:
Ellis	Catcher	O'Leary
Hills	1st Base	Brazle
Payne	2nd Base	French
Gashue	3rd Base	O'Reilly
Luther	Shortstop	Doc Power
Gashue	Right Field	Delaney
Kiely	Centre Field	Power
Heath	Left Field	O'Donnell
Jenkins	Spares	Smith
Conney		Connolly

The umpires will be Mr. Chesman and Major Montgomery, with Messrs. Channing and Merner scorers.

OH! DEMON!

Tommy Duggan will have to pull 'em down faster than he did on Saturday night or he'll be making a mess of things again.

PENNANT PROPHECIES.

The Cubs have a balanced team with lots of skill and speed, and with their leader it would seem they ought to take the lead. The Lions have a pitcher now, superb to con-

Mr. Morine's Denial.

To the Editor of the Star.
You directly charge me with writing a lengthy article which appeared in the "Herald" on Friday last. That is untrue. I neither wrote, inspired nor suggested the article, and had no knowledge of it prior to its publication.

For the persistent use of intentional or reckless falsehood, mendacious statements for a malicious purpose, the Star excels any newspaper here or elsewhere I have ever read, and this bad eminence reflects not alone on you sir, but upon the man behind you, whose puppet you are content to be.

Upon the article in question, and my falsely alleged connection with it, I choose to make certain explanations, because some of your mean insinuations would otherwise get currency. I did not at any time try to get any political preferment in the Lloyd Government. I have never asked anybody for the office I now hold. I never had men around town trying to boost me as leader of the Opposition. I never held myself out to the public as prepared to accept the leadership of an Opposition.

In the early Spring of this year, just prior to Sir Wm. Lloyd's return to the Colony, I considered certain tentative suggestions as to the re-organization of the Government. It was thought that it might be made more representative and acceptable. The inclusion of myself and others was discussed. The negotiations, or perhaps I should say discussions, failed of their purpose, for reasons not wholly known to me.

The public agitation which sprung up, including public meetings over the proposal to have a Spring Election, was considerably later in date than the discussions I refer to. During that agitation I never, publicly or privately, sought the leadership of an Opposition. I was never asked to accept it by any man authorized to receive any promise from me. To the only persons approaching me entitled to any avowal from me, I said that if I were approached, my answer would depend upon circumstances which I could not satisfy myself about until I should be asked to become leader. Frankly, the answer would have depended upon the character of the support I could have made sure of.

When I entered the present Government, no man or men in this Colony had any just claim upon my personal or party allegiance. I was free to serve my constituents, and the public as I thought I could best serve them, and in my opinion I did so by accepting office with the only colleagues who were potentially able template, and if these lads can stand the gaff their chance to win is great. The Irish are there with youngsters, but with spirits tried and true. It seems to us they'll make some fuss before the year is through. The Wanders braves are dashing knaves, and Timmy is a fox. Their pitcher ought to win unless he's batted from the box.

R. WILL U. B. WISE.

Miss Reader: You win. Any writer who speaks of the famous Conney as "Cluney" and that most astute fan Hooks as "Hucks" surely thinks that it was Abraham Washington who motor-boated the Delaware.

ALAS!

You may change managers on the B.I.S. when they're not looking, but you can't fool those guys that way. They know they're the Irish, and lose just the same.

TO-NIGHT.

Aye! lock the Welcome mat up, John, and feed the rubber plants; and put the go-cart on the ice, then get your Sunday pants. And tell the parrot that his French instructor never came. Then we'll be off to see the Lions cop another game.

SO!

Distance from first to second base is only 90 feet. It nearly seems longer when Si tries to steal.

TOMMY!

Tommy Payne gives base runners an awful pain when he gets them out at first.

THE SKEPTIC.

"The dope he writes," the rooster said, "has set my heart aflame! 'There isn't half a chance our club will lose a single game. 'Twill be a rout a massacre, a low down brutal shame!'"

"The dope he writes," his best girl said, "may set your heart aglow, whereas it only makes me laugh. Ho! ho! ho! He wrote that same old brand of dope just one short year ago."

Ice Conditions North.

Such ice conditions as have existed at Fogo and Tilting of late, were never known before by any residing there. The ice is jammed tightly on the land and extends many miles seaward. No less than 280 bergs were seen off Tilting a few days ago, many of them supposed to be aground.

To-day's Messages.

NO MORE CONCESSIONS.

PARIS, June 23.

The German note, to which the Four Council replied to-day by definitely rejecting all communication for alteration in the treaty, declared that the Germans regard the terms of peace as impracticable, and their signature is given under duress. Protests were made amongst the clauses concerning reparations, the forfeit of colonies and others, as certain that the terms cannot be carried, and that the German Government cannot be held responsible for what may occur.

The note concluded by saying that the Germans will sign with reservations relative to the turning over of those alleged to be guilty of crimes, and also the admission of the guilt of Germany in causing the war. In replying the Council of Four said, "The Allied and Associated Powers have considered the note of the German delegation of even date, and in view of the shortness of the time within which the German Government must make its final decision, as to the signature of the treaty, less than twenty-four hours remain. The Allied and Associated Governments have given the fullest consideration to all the representations hitherto made by the German Government with regard to the treaty, and have replied with complete frankness. They have made some concessions as they thought it was just to make. The present note of the German delegation presents no new arguments of considerations not already examined." The Council then declared that the time for discussion was past, and that German representatives must make their decision to sign and accept the treaty as a whole or to reject it.

WHY THEY SUNK THEM.

EDINBURGH, June 23.
Arrangements had been made to board the German fleet on Monday should peace be signed, as the ships would then automatically pass to the Allies, but the German crews anticipated matters.

THE "TIGER" TO RESIGN.
PARIS, June 23.
Clemenceau has expressed his intention to resign from office as soon as the Peace Treaty is promulgated, feeling that he has accomplished the task for which he assumed the Premiership, says Marcel Hutin in the Echo de Paris.

DR. VALERA IN AMERICA.
NEW YORK, June 23.
Edward De Valera, President of the Sinn Fein, emerged dramatically to-night from the section in which he has kept himself since his arrival in the United States, and in a statement to the press at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, where he has been living by widely enthusiastic followers, he declared he had come to America to speak for the Irish nation. Mr. De Valera declined to tell how he contrived to reach America, but said he came here from Boston several days ago. It was stated that during his stay in New York he has been living at a Carmelite priory. In a statement to newspaper men, De Valera discussed Irish unanimity for freedom, and the depopulation of Ireland. He drew a parallel between the American revolution and the present effort for aid of Americans for Ireland.

Rumoured Peace Signed.
At six o'clock yesterday afternoon a rumour that H. M. S. Cumberland, then in port, had received word that the Peace Treaty had been agreed to and signed, gained currency, and for a while everybody was discussing the matter. It was later, however, ascertained that the rumour was unfounded.

Coming to Placentia.
The S. S. Glencoe, which leaves North Sydney to-night, will come right on to Placentia, where the passengers will be landed. President H. D. Reid, of the Reid Nfld. Co., and wife are passengers by the Glencoe. Mr. Reid's daughter is very ill in town and he is hurrying home with all speed.

GRAND FALLS DELEGATES.—Magistrate Scott of Grand Falls, leaves the city for Carbonear this evening representing with Mr. M. Pike, J.P., of the Customs, the circuit of Grand Falls and vicinity at the Methodist Conference. The Twillingate district meeting, which was planned for Long Island, N.B., had to be cancelled owing to ice conditions, and a short session was held at Lewisport by such clergymen as could reach that central railway town. The district work will be finalized at the Conference town.

A Wedding in the Air.
With the exhausts from two twelve-cylinder Liberty motors beating the wedding march, Lieut. R. W. Meade, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Marjorie Dumont, of Yorkville, Ind., on May 31 were pronounced man and wife, more than 2,000 above the heads of 10,000 spectators at Ellington Field, Texas. A giant Handley-Page bombing plane carried the wedding party of twelve persons. Lieut. E. W. Kilgore piloted the machine, and Chaplain Lieut. J. E. Rees, of Nevan, Ohio, acted as "sky-pilot." Following the ceremony, the party enjoyed a twenty-five minute cruise.
