Notes From Elliston.

Miss Fanny Martin arrived home last week from the Methodist College, St. John's, to spend her holidays with her mother, Mrs. William Martin.

Miss May Bages, our Methodist teacher, left for her home at Point Leamington, N.D.B., on Friday evening last, to spend her holidays with her parents.

Miss Jane Ellis, from Halifax, is spending the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ellis.

Mr. George Porter has been here since last week. Mr. Porter comes from Vancouver, B.C., where he has been in residence during the last four years. He returns again at the end of August. In the meantime we wish him a pleasant vacation.

Rev. Roger W. Gough, son of Jas. Gough, came to town Monday morning. Roger has capably and successfully fulfilled the Methodist Pastorship of Petties and LaSalle, and we bespeak for him a splendid career in the profession to which he has allied himself. He leaves Wednesday to take up his ministerial duties in his new field, Springfield.

The people are thoroughly engrossed in discussion on the fishery which, so far, has been anything but good. However, as just a small fraction of the summer has elapsed, there is hope for a brighter outlook in the future. The recent storm has left its toll of destruction, and Elliston is not without its share. Mr. Garland Porter lost a trap, while all of the others were damaged to a more or less extent. About six boats also were either wholly or partially destroyed.

Mr. Heber Cole, the Methodist teacher on the North Side, was in the city for a few days. Mr. Cole is also the bandmaster of the L.O.A. band, and is a musician of ability and repute.

Mr. Frank Pearce has been teaching at Point au Geni during the past year. He arrived in town from there on Monday morning, and is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amariah Pearce.

Mr. Nimshi Crews paid us a visit last Saturday. Mr. Crews is employed at Port Union where he has won the confidence of his employer, Sir W. F. Coaker, who is amply justified in advancing him to the high office which he holds. Mr. Crews is a young man of promise, and there are great things in store for him in the future.

U.S. Paper Men Discuss Reprisal.

SHOW ALARM AT CANADIAN PROHIBITION OF WOOD EXPORT—RETRIBUTION PLANS—WITHHOLD ACTION UNTIL GOVERNOR GENERAL SIGNS BILL.

New York, July 9.—(Canadian Press).—Paper manufacturers in the United States are becoming alarmed over the situation which may develop should Governor-General Byng sign the bill passed by the Canadian Parliament at its recent session prohibiting the exportation of pulpwood from freehold lands in the Dominion. Philip T. Dodge, president of the International Paper Company, said Saturday that the threatened embargo would have the effect of increasing ultimately the price of newsprint and would likely subvert the industry in the United States in favor of Canada.

The Washington correspondent of the Post says there are prospects of an interchange with the Canadian Government, with possible development of tariff retaliation on Canadian imports of coal and other necessities.

According to the correspondent formal action is being withheld pending the signature of the bill by the Governor-General.

Officials of the tariff commission are said to be watching the situation with particular interest because of the fear that the effect of the bill would be to raise newsprint prices in the United States $10 a ton.

It is further stated that paper dealers fear that if the bill becomes effective one-fifth of the pulpwood supply of the United States would be cut off and hundreds of workmen in the United States mills would be thrown out of employment.

The fact that pulpwood is on the free list in the Fordney-McCumber tariff law prevents the imposition of a retaliatory duty on a similar article going from the United States to Canada, but tariff experts say that a measure of reprisal could be obtained by the levy of duty on other necessities imported into the Dominion which might bring about a reconsideration of the Canadian attitude on the pulpwood question.

Signature by the Governor-General is expected to be followed by an immediate protest from the United States paper manufacturers, which will be given formal recognition by both the State Department and the Tariff Board.

C. of E. Orphanage Garden Party.

Active preparations are being made for the Church of England Garden Party which has in recent years become one of the events of the summer to which all eagerly look forward. Everything is being done to make this year's affair an even greater attraction than it has been in the past, and provided the clerk of the weather is kind, it is anticipated that the number who will attend will be larger than ever before.

St. Joseph's Regatta, August 8th.

A meeting of St. Joseph's Regatta Committee was held on Saturday night to make arrangements for the races in connection with the annual garden party, which event takes place at Quidi Vidi Lake on August 8th. Rev. Fr. Phipps, who was present, addressed the gathering at some length, and thanked each and all for their unstinted support. Before the business of the meeting was taken up, he outlined the many details in connection with the affair, which were fully supported by all. Mr. P. F. Collins, President of the C.C.C. Boat Club, in speaking on behalf of the organization, assured Fr. Phipps that they would do everything possible to make the day a gala one. Like last year they again placed their race boats and Club House at their disposal, which will no doubt meet with the approval of all. Under the present arrangements seven races have been listed for the day, one of which will include a dory race which will start from the bottom of the pond. The matter of holding a swimming race was also dealt with, and it is quite likely that this old time event will find a place on the programme. The meeting adjourned until a further date, when the official programme will be announced.

Mt. Carmel Sunday.

RECORD ATTENDANCE YESTERDAY.

There was a record attendance at the annual Requiem Mass held at Mt. Carmel Cemetery yesterday. Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Phipps who delivered a very impressive sermon on "Devotion to the Souls in Purgatory." The Rev. preacher in his opening remarks, explained the Catholic Doctrine on Purgatory, and exhorted the people to show their love and affection to their departed friends by assisting them by their prayers and good works. The cemetery grounds were beautifully decorated and reflected great credit on the Committee.

C. L. B. Cadets.

The Church Lads Brigade Cadets held an open air church parade yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at Inspector Noseworthy's farm, Kenmount Road. The Battalion was under command of Lieut.-Col. Walter F. Rendell, C.B.E., and the service was taken by Rev. Canon Bolt, M.A., as Brigade Chaplain. On arrival at the farm the residents, thirty Doctor Carnell, Messrs. Jos. Dawling, Noseworthy and others had the beauty spot decorated with flags—the country homes of the former being most attractive. The lads marched out by Pennywell Road and returned by way of Freshwater Road headed by the Battalion Band and the Old Comrades were under the orders of President Ernest Chate. The bugle band did good work but they were not up to full strength unfortunately. The service was most impressive. Drums were played and covered with the Battalion colours—and the quiet stillness of the countryside was broken by the music of the Band and the manly voices of the Brigade with their many friends who had gone out to join them in the service of prayer and praise. The sermon was a most appropriate one for the occasion, the subject being the "Miracle of the five loaves and two fishes" referred to in St. Matthew, Chapter 14, Verse 17. The preacher's address was a strong appeal to the lads to be faithful in their various walks of life, to be faithful in small things for the reward would be great, for one often builds better than one knows. Who would have thought that when the C.L.B. movement was started in 1911 that it would have grown to such proportions the world over as it is to-day—doing so much good for boy life; and those ladies and gentlemen who planned and completed the C.L.B. Armoury in St. John's never knew, when they started the Armoury how useful that building would be to the Brigade's training, how that the Brigade later on would form the nucleus of the First Newfoundland Regiment! At the conclusion of the service a collection was taken up and the Battalion marched back to their quarters. "A" Company was under command of Captain Snow and "F" Company in charge of Captain Phil B. Rendell. Before being dismissed Lieut.-Col. Walter F. Rendell expressed his appreciation of the attendance of the Old Comrades whose loyal support is highly appreciated by all ranks. Thanks are also due to Inspector Noseworthy for the use of his farm and the residents of Kenmount Road. Forty lads volunteered in response to a call from the Orphanage Garden Party Committee to act as stewards to the lady table holders of that function, which is being held on Wednesday. The National Anthem brought to a close a most successful drum head service and parade.
