

pend on us overtaking the carriage. "Side to daylight, at least. There's no fear of the carriage proceeding from then, at any rate, for there can be no manner of doubt that it is either at the Beehive or at the road near it. "Impossible," exclaimed Harry, as rapidly he buttoned up his topcoat. "We cannot, dare not stay all night, added George. "At whatever risk we must reach the vehicle. "Oh, well, if that must be, you'll just have to do your best. I think the wind is hardly roarin' so loud, and the stars are isna pepperin' on the window like the muckle. But we'll see how the night looks. "There's no stir a step," said Jamie, very resolutely. "If nobody else has sense, I have."

A USELESS LUMINARY.—An old woman of Cabrach, who had never left the parish, was at last prevailed upon to visit some friends in Aberdeen. It happened to be the time of full moon, when the granite city presents a singularly fine appearance at night. Struck by this, but thinking it due to some improvement of these advanced times wrought on the nightly luminary, she expressed her satisfaction thus:—"Weel, I like a' thing about Aberdeen that I have seen, but 'specially yer bonny moon; it's a rare treat to see it; for the sun we had at the Cabrach's like the back of a heuk, an' gies nae light worth speakin' o'."

Mansion House, Baltimore, Md., 26th October, 1871.—Mr. James I. Fellows—Dear Sir: I have just finished the tenth and last bottle of your estimable Syrup of the Hypophosphites. To its use I ascribe cessation of cough, of sharp pains in my back and chest, and of copious expectoration; also, return of appetite, buoyancy of spirits, increase of flesh and strength to perform my daily duties with a degree of pleasure unknown to me for a long time. The good I have experienced from it is beyond description, and I advise all persons afflicted with consumption not to delay a day in taking it. Feeling sure that were it not for your Hypophosphites, I would now be in my grave. Yours truly, Geo. C. Four.

Over-exertion, either of body or mind, produces debility and disease. The usual remedy is to take some stimulant, the effect of which is the same as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true way is to fortify the system with a permanent tonic like the Peruvian Syrup, (a protoxide of Iron), which gives strength and vigor to the whole system. BREAKFAST—EPH'S COCOA—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills.—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labelled "James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

IF You Have Been an Invalid for years with some Chronic Wasting Disease of the Lungs, Heart, Liver, or Kidneys, you need not flatter yourself that medicine is going to cure you immediately. Repair goes on slowly, and time is necessary to build up a broken down constitution. Do not take every nostrum you read about, nor follow the advice of every friend who has a specific to offer you. Procure a remedy scientifically prepared, that is the result of experience, that has a large amount of evidence of sensible people in favor of its reliability, and persevere in its use until the whole system undergoes a radical improvement, and health is restored. DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES and CALISAYA is Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, as it meets your most sanguine expectations, as it combines everything necessary to perfect digestion, nutrition, and the formation of Healthy Blood, and to vitalize all the organs and tissues of the body. Sold at $1.00 per bottle.

WILSTARS' BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY BETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass. And sold by Druggists and Dealers generally.
