A Fine Instrument

Is the Dundas Center Methodist Church's New Organ.

To Be Opened on Thursday - Miles o Tubing-Handsome Appearance.

The grand three-manual pipe organ of the Dundas Street Center Methodist Church has been completed, and the public will first listen to its strains on Thursday evening. It is a beauty in appearance. Mr. J. A. Croden, manager for R. S. Williams & Co., the makers of the organ, explained its workings carefully to an Advertiser reporter, who called to see the instrument the other day. The organ was skillfully manipulated by Mr. Rheinberg, the company's pipe organ tuner. It was surprising the different qualities of tone that his clever touch produced. In all, there are three and a half miles of pneumatic tubing, making it the largest organ west of Toronto, and much greater than that of the old Queen's Avenue Methodist Church. It has the Williams' tubular pneumatic action throughout. The case is of solid the architecture of the church. The front pipes are highly and richly decorated in gold and colors. The keyboard and organist's seat are extended six feet to the front of the instrument, giving him much better control of the choir. Power for the organ is secured at present from a water motor, but it is the church's intention to substitute electricity.

And Disqualified for Two Years-Writs

Against London West City Fathers, The writs against the London West Council in the case of Wm. Parkhouse against that body will be served on the defendants today, so that Reeve Saunby and Councilors Duff, Hamilton and Collins will each be the possessor of the legal documents, bearing the signature of Mr. J. Shanly, local master in chancery. The claim is for the repayment of $1,061, which was levied in 1895 for the sinking fund, and afterwards used for current expenses. It also asks that the reeve and councilors be disqualified from holding office for two years. Ten days are allowed for the defendants to enter an appearance, and if nothing is done in that time the suit will be continued.
