The cause is generally a disordered stomach, and a cure can be effected by using Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, containing Mandarins and Dandelion. Mr. Finlay Wark, Lyndhurst, P. ## London and Environs

Old General Humidity's come to town, With a blustering mein and cloudy frown: But we welcome the old chap back again, For he brings us the longed-for, welcome rain.

—Tuesday evening's postponed concert is to be given in Victoria Park to-night by the Musical Society Band, under the leadership of Mr. Fred L. Evans. The programme was announced on Tuesday.

—In the paragraph referring to the changes in the fire department there was no intention of making it appear that Mr. Daniel McDonald would drive the hose wagon. Mr. McDonald has handled the horses as only a thoroughly competent driver can do, but he prefers to work on the line. That is why the change was made.

—Mrs. Ella Bassett Washington, of New York City, was overcome by the heat while traveling from Richmond, Va., to Washington, on Monday. Mrs. Washington is the mother of W. de Herburn Washington, of New York, who invented the geometrical progression scheme for charitable purposes, and who was at one time United States consul in London.

—The funeral on Tuesday of the late Dr. P. M. Mann, of Aylmer, was largely attended. The services at the residence and grave were conducted by Rev. J. W. Andrews, of Trinity Church. The remains were interred in Aylmer cemetery. The pall-bearers were the six brothers of deceased—Charles and Wellington, St. Thomas; John and Jehiel, Yarmouth; James, of this city, and Thomas, Aylmer.

—The closing of the W. C. T. U. industrial school for the summer months took place Saturday afternoon. Seventy-five children, with their superintendent and teachers, were conveyed, via open street cars, Queen's Park, and notwithstanding the intense heat the little ones had a good time. Tea was served for them in the W. C. T. U. dining hall, and prizes given for punctuality, good conduct and recitation of Scripture texts. The teachers wish to thank all who contributed to the afternoon's pleasure.

—Mr. Fred A. Andrews, of the American Express Company here, was married yesterday morning to Miss Hannah Mary Flint, of London West. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's uncle, Mr. Samuel Gibson, Woodview, London West, by Rev. G. B. Sage, assisted by Rev. H. R. Diehl, of Florence. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties were present, and the happy couple left for the west on an extended honeymoon trip immediately after partaking of the wedding breakfast.

—The Y. P. S. C. E. of St. George's church, London West, held a social in their schoolroom Tuesday evening, quite a number of Endeavorers being present. Mr. A. It was resolved: "That we, the members of the Anglican Clerical Association, decide, for the better observance of the Lord's Day, to admit the various city organizations to public worship on Sundays only when unaccompanied by a band, and we would further recommend that such parades be held on week-days instead of Sundays."

GOT THERE AT LAST.
The two councils of the Royal Armanum in this city have for years been rivals in the game of whist, but London Council has always held the championship. They lost the title last night, however. London South Council ventured across the river, armed with Cavendish and other authorities, and infused with some new blood, and after a play of 50 "hands," the city council found they were minus 29 of being the winners. The visiting members were entertained to luncheon, and went home, happy to be victors at last.

A PLUCKY TRAVELER.
Mr. A. E. Whitaker, traveler for Messrs. Moses Maurel & Co., city, is a very plucky man. He was doing some of the northern towns and villages in the interests of his firm on Tuesday, and when driving from Bayfield to Exeter his horse took fright and bolted. Mr. Whitaker was thrown out of the rig with such force that he suffered a broken arm and an injured hip. He secured another horse and rig, and with his injuries, unattended, did three villages and then went to Exeter. There Mr. Whitaker had his arm set, and came to London. His many friends will regret to learn of the accident, but will be pleased to learn that he is doing as well as can be expected.

ILBERTON'S NEW CHURCH.
For about two years the Ilberton Presbyterian congregation have held their services in the Oddfellows' Hall of that village. The foundations of a church home have been started and yesterday afternoon the corner stones were formally laid. A large number of the congregation and their friends were present. Rev. W. J. Clark and Mr. Geo. A. McGillivray, of this city, each put a stone in its proper place. After this ceremony the assembly adjourned to the hall and brief addresses were given by Rev. W. J. Clark, Mr. Geo. A. McGillivray, Rev. W. M. Haig, Hyde Park; Rev. N. Lindsay, Ivan; Rev. James Little, Birr, and Rev. S. Lawrence, pastor and chairman for the occasion. A sumptuous supper was partaken of and the event concluded with a garden party in the evening. A liberal offering was received.

ORANGE CELEBRATION.
The 20th anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne will be celebrated in the city of London on the 12th of July, 1895, under the auspices of the Loyal Orange County Lodge of East Middlesex, by a monster demonstration, the largest ever held in Western Ontario. From replies received to invitations sent out last December by the secretary of the committee, there will be over 100 lodges in the line of march. The committee having the management of this demonstration are sparing no pains to have the celebration eclipse any of previous years. It is estimated that 10,000 Orangemen and their friends will celebrate the day in London. Addresses will be delivered by prominent members of the order, among whom are expected: M. W. Sir Mackenzie Bowell, K.C.B.; M. W. N. Clarke Wallace, G.M.E.N.A.; Comptroller of Customs; M. W. Robert Birmingham, G.S.B.N.A.; M. W. Wm. Fitzgerald, G.M.L.Y.B.A.; R. W. W. J. H. Traynor, P.G.M.O.W.; R. W. J. L. Hughes, G.M.O.W. and P.S. of Toronto; R. W. J. L. White, P.G.M.O.W., St. Marys; Rev. Wm. Walsh, grand chaplain, O.W., of Brampton; Rev. Dr. Wild, of Bronte, and others.
