Some letters were read bearing on the work and the needs of these poor people. After some time was spent in prayer for the success of the work the meeting was closed. The society will meet in Somerset Hall on first Monday in February. It Was Too Much.

The division of the wards for polling purposes was, according to a returning officer at Monday's elections, very unfair. An ADVERTISER reporter ran across one of the returning officers of No. 5 ward and asked him if he was kept busy during the hours of polling. "Yes," he said, "the division of the wards was anything but equal. In No. 5, the largest in the city and having the greatest number of voters in any ward, there were only four polling places, despite the fact that there were three bylaws to be voted on. Compare that ward with Nos. 1 and 3, in which were seven polling places. It was a hard day's work in spite of the fact that the vote cast was not as large as usual, and the returning officers in No. 5 earned their wages."

Death of E. U. Sayers, Barrister. The sudden death last evening of Mr. E. U. Sayers, barrister, at his residence, 426 Princess avenue, will prove a great shock to many in the city. Mr. Sayers had been ill for some time, and in the afternoon felt better, A quick relapse resulted in death with surprising rapidity. Mr. Sayers possessed a splendid constitution, was a man of fine appearance, and was a noted athlete. A sad circumstance is the fact that he was so recently married, his wife being Miss Rock, daughter of the late Warren Rock. The deepest sympathy will be felt for her. Deceased was 35 years of age, the second son of the late Edward G. Sayers, of Cayuga, and a brother of Mr. G. N. Sayers, of Sterling Bros. In early life he started as watchman on a lake steamer, gradually working his way up till he was at last made a captain. From the time he reached the latter position Capt. Grummond accumulated considerable wealth, and was at one time known as the largest tug owner on the lakes. He had taken an active part in politics and was at one time mayor of Detroit, in which city the flags are flying at half-mast in honor of deceased.

The Late Capt. West. The remains of the late Capt. John West. of 709 Waterloo street, city, were interred to-day in the cemetery at St. Johns. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis, which his splendid constitution outlived a week. Capt. West was a typical English gentleman of good family and ample means. He was a son of Lieut.-Col. West, of the Fourth King's Own Regiment, and was himself a captain in the Eightieth Regiment. Years ago he went to Australia, but afterwards returned to England. His attention was attracted to Canada by the reports of a near friend, Rev. Canon Kingsley, a distinguished divine who had visited this country and was highly impressed with it. Somewhat over twenty years ago Capt. West and family settled in London and deceased became a familiar figure in the city. He attained the ripe age of 88 years, and until recently was able to walk about. Four children are left-John and William, the former residing with his father; MIS. Distrowe, of Courtright, Ont., and Mrs. Wood, at home. Capt. West was a courtly and polished man, very kind hearted, and possessed of fine social qualities. He had a rich fund of reminiscence, gathered during his eventful life, which made him a most agreeable companion.
