

Still Coming.

Our Wallpaper has been attracting much attention. It has been coming in for a long time, and now it's about all here.

It's worth seeing just for your pleasure. Its quality and beauty will appeal to you. About anything you may desire is ready for your inspection.

O. B. GRAVES

222 Dundas Street.

VANDERBURG'S LIVERY.....

619 Dundas St. Phone 666.

Everything first-class, mostly rubber tires. Try our rubber-tired Victoria.

J. Ferguson & Sons

UNDERTAKERS

Phone 55 and 57. 180 King St.

Reasonable Charges; Personal Attention; First-Class Equipment. Open all the year around.

JOHN FERGUSON, Manager.

Ladies' Tailor-Made Costumes.

The most stylish garments made from a large and varied assortment of woollens of the latest weave. Satisfaction in fit and finish, and reasonable prices. Ladies invited to call.

F. FENECH,

380 Richmond Street.

LONDON

Incorporated 1899.

W. CAVEN BARRON,

Pianist, Principal.

Best teachers in the city at the Conservatory.

The rehearsals bring extra credit. Mr. Barron's direction, and reports of pupils' progress are sent home to parents.

H. C. McBRIDE, ARCHITECT.

215 Dundas St.

R. K. COWAN

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC.

Court Bldg., next Court House, London.

WALL PAPER

We are offering large reductions in our Wall Paper for the balance of this month. Call and be convinced.

H. & C. COLERICK,

443 RICHMOND STREET.

HARDING HALL GIRLS' SCHOOL

Limited.

398 Queen's Ave.

J. J. BAKER, M.A. Pres.

A Shining Example.

Nothing better than electricity for lighting—there couldn't be. It gives a pure light without odor, without dirt and without labor.

If You Don't Use It It's Time You Begin.

We want you to ask about the cost of wiring and of lighting after it is wired in.

London Electric Co., 359 Richmond Street.

Bread and Biscuits.

Daisy Flour is the best brand. Convincing proof is given any cook by once using it.

J. HAWKINS, Arva, Ont.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY."

"Other People's Money" did not have large audiences of the latter performance Saturday. The play contains light humor, most of which is sustained by Samuel J. Roberts. Miss Mary Sarzent, the much-starred, was not equal to expectations.

LAST BIG ATTRACTION AT THE GRAND THIS SEASON.

The principal song hits in "The Strollers," which will be presented at the Grand tonight are "Look It Up in the Dream Book," "Little Daffy Day Dream," "The Filtration Song," "Automobile Chorus," "Loretta," and "Strollers We." Some of these are gems in their way. The principal names of interest in the cast are: Miss Margaret Sylvia, who heads the organization; George K. Boniface, Jun.; Neil McNeil, D. L. Don, David Torrence, Edith Millward, Dorothy Hunting and a host of others. "The Strollers" is one of the snappiest, most beautiful and amusing of the latter day musical pieces. It is by Englander and Smith, who are responsible for almost every successful musical presentation that has been seen in the past few years in New York, and the whole aspect of the play will be redolent of quality. There are 60 people in this company.

NO TROUBLE SINCE

L. Dake, of St. Thomas, Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and It Banished His Pains for Good.

St. Thomas, Ont., May 18—(Special).—L. Dake, proprietor of the Dake House here, and one of the best known of St. Thomas hotel men, is among those who have found relief from the terrible kidney troubles in Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Dake says:

"I had been troubled for over five years with my kidneys, and pains in my back. Nothing I used could give me any relief, till finally on advice of a friend I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"By the time I had finished one box the pains and kidney disease were gone. That is over five years ago now, and I have had no return of the trouble since. I think I can safely say my cure was a permanent one."

"I advise all my friends who are troubled in the same way to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Genuine Turkish and Persian Rugs.

Another opportunity will be given art lovers of London to purchase handsome Turkish and Persian rugs on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week at Neil Cooper's auction rooms, 241 Dundas street, when a large collection of these rugs will be sold by auction. The rugs will be on view today and tomorrow, and Mr. Babayan who has favored Londoners with a number of sales of this kind, will be present to give all information desired.

Canada Trust Company

Managed in connection with The Huron and Erie Loan and Savings Company.

Specially Chartered to Act as Executor, Administrator, Guardian, Trustee, Etc.

V. CROXSON, President.
J. W. LITTLE, Vice-President.
G. A. SOMERVILLE, Managing Director.

A REPUTATION AT STAKE....

THE Piano is one of the few articles of manufacture the real value of which can be determined by actual use only. The best guarantee, therefore, lies in the reputation of the makers. For SIXTY-THREE YEARS the name of NORDHEIMER has been associated with the best Pianos sold in Canada.

NORDHEIMER'S

Limited.
188 Dundas Street.

63 Years Established.

When Planting Time Comes

We have all the desirable plants in Flowers, Vines, Roses, etc.

Gammage & Sons, 207 Dundas St.

X-RAY and Electro-Therapeutic Rooms.

for the treatment of Cancer, Eczema, Scabies, Rheumatism, Bright's Disease, Gout, and Neuritis.

DR. PINGEL, Specialist, London.

Headaches Cured.

Ninety per cent of headaches are caused by imperfect eyes. We can permanently cure such headaches with glasses.

W. G. YOUNG

The Jeweler,
214 Dundas Street.

LONDON AND DISTRICT.

—Mrs. Beck is visiting in Montreal.

—Mrs. C. McCall, of St. Marys, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Weith.

—Mrs. (Dr.) Eccles has returned from St. Marys, where she has been visiting.

—Mr. Harry Lockard has returned to Chatham after a week's visit with old friends here.

—Mr. Meade Adams has arrived from Vermont, his wife having taken ill, while visiting her home here. She is recovering.

Among the guests of the Historical Society banquet at St. Thomas Thursday night are to be Sir John Carling and Mayor Beck.

—Yesterday was a warm day. The thermometer at 2 o'clock registered 84 degrees in the shade, the highest in May in several years.

—An offer has been made to the Port Stanley Navigation Company to bring their steamer, the Winona, between Amherstburg and Wyandotte, Mich. The directors are considering the matter today.

—Drs. J. M. Piper and J. D. Balfour, of this city, have been awarded certificates of proficiency for holding rank in the medical services of the Canadian forces, the former as surgeon-major and the latter as surgeon-lieutenant and captain.

—Mrs. I. H. Budd, for years a highly respected resident of this city, will in future make her home in Boston, Mass. Her daughters, Misses Marie and Isabel Budd, will also remove thence. Many friends here will wish that their experience in the City of Culture may be very pleasant.

SEVENTH REGIMENT INSPECTION

The annual inspection of the Seventh Regiment will be held at the drill shed on Thursday night by Col. Peters, D.O.C.

MR. JORDAN'S RECITAL.

Mr. A. D. Jordan brought his series of organ recitals to a close on Saturday afternoon and as in the case of the preceding ones the programme was much enjoyed. A feature of the recital was the excellent singing of Mrs. Calder-Stock. It is announced that Mr. Jordan purpose giving another series beginning in September.

ELECTED A BOARD.

The annual meeting of Young Women's Association was held Saturday evening. The president, Miss Fraser, occupied the chair, and there were a large number present. The election took place of the following members of the board of management: Miss Jeffrey, Mrs. Ingram, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Becker, Miss Brown and Miss Tanton.

THREE BANDS IN LINE.

The Seventh Regiment now has in its composition no less than three bands—the brass, bugle and fife and drum. The organization of the last named was quietly effected some time ago, with the consent of the officers, and the practices have been held, so that now the band is prepared to appear in the parades with the regiment. The weekly route march will be held tonight, with the three bands in line. The regi-

C. R. Sumner

Watchmaker and Jeweler,
380 Richmond Street.

Children's Headwear.

That smartness that mothers like to see in their children's dress is in our HATS and CAPS.

BELTZ

Moved Across the Street.

ment will again go to Tecumseh Park to practice movements for the outing to be held at Sarnia on Saturday, Sunday and Monday next.

WALTERS-CURRIE.

A very pretty May wedding was solemnized recently, when Miss Christina Currie, only daughter of Mrs. Alex. Currie was united in wedlock to Mr. Hugh Walters, of Lebo. The bride was daintily attired in white, carried a large bouquet of white carnations and roses, and was given away by her brother John, while her little niece, Miss Myrtle Currie, attired in white organza trimmed with pink, acted as flower girl. Rev. Mr. Bridgman, of Poplar Hill, officiated. The ceremony transpired on the lawn, and was witnessed by about 20 guests, who afterwards sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast. Then the wedding party accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Walters to the station, where, among showers of rice, left on a two weeks' trip through the Western States. The bride's going-away dress was brown, trimmed with applique and buttons.

IT WON'T ENTER LONDON

But the Ontario West Shore Road Will Tap Middlesex.

Rival company Will Carry Its Traffic to the City.

Mr. Dan McGillicuddy, whose name has been mentioned in these columns before as connected with the projected railway running out of Goderich, was at the Grigg House Saturday for a short time. He was on his way home from Toronto, where he has been advocating the changing of the charter of what was known as the Huron, Bruce and Grey Railway. The desire of the company was, as has been pointed out, to enlarge their charter, which allowed them to pass through the counties of Huron and Grey, so as to enter the city of London and to have a branch to Sarnia.

While the latter part of the petition has been granted and the railway will have a terminal at Sarnia, the charter was not amended so as to allow them to enter the city of London. A satisfactory arrangement, however, was made and one which would be beneficial to this city as if the charter had been so amended.

OBJECTIONS WERE RAISED.

The road which objected to the charter being amended as petitioned for was the proposed London, Parkhill and Grand Bend Railway, which already has a charter from the province. It will run from Goderich north to Owen Sound and south to Sarnia, with a belt line around the county of Huron. It will pass through London and Sarnia, the townships of West Williams and McGillicuddy, and in doing so will cross the London, Parkhill and Grand Bend road.

The companies will come to some arrangement, so that each will carry traffic of the other, and thus will do away with the necessity of certain double tracking. The Ontario West Shore will be feeder for the L. P. and G. B. R., and vice versa. Each road will be better able to complete its work in a short time, and there will be no useless duplication of interests. As the Grand Bend road will have an entrance into this city the building of the two roads will mean that there will be radial railway connection between London and Sarnia, Goderich and Owen Sound, and numerous intermediate points. Mr. McGillicuddy told the Advertiser that now that such satisfactory arrangements have been made, there would be no difficulty in financing the O. W. S. R., and that this summer should see the money raised for the building, and that very soon it would be started.

MORE FAITH IN GOD NEEDED.

At the morning service at St. Andrew's Church, Rev. Dr. Smith took his text from Job, 13, xv., "Though I slay me, yet will I trust him," and he made the point that in this world of trouble, sorrow and disappointment, people were very often made discouraged. What was needed was more faith in God, and it was only now that on his way to the city of London, he saw the world was one of processes and not of results, and was not yet made, but still in process. The result was to come hereafter. The present time was but the beginning of life. God's world when finished would be far better. How many things there were in this world that he could not see. He would see the world as it is, but he would see it as it should be, and that was what he needed.

During the service he said that what the church today needed to do the most was to look after the children. A good deal of time, he said, was spent on the middle-aged and the elder people, which might better be given to them. He considered that before the world could be saved for God, the children should be Christianized. They should not only be made members of the church congregations, but the church as well.

WORKING FOR THE LUMBERMEN.

Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick, who is devoting his time to the education of the children in the lumber camps, was in the city again yesterday, occupying the pulpit of the First Methodist Church in the morning, and the First Congregational Church in the evening. Mr. Fitzpatrick discussed the work in which he is engaged, and asked most forcibly the need of the lumbermen. Although a Presbyterian clergyman, his work is purely undenominational, being aided by the proprietors of the lumber camps and other friends. He became alive to the needs of such a movement in a peculiar way. After graduating from the University of Kingston he was instructed by a man who was as anyone else in the world, to find a son who was supposed to have gone there some years before. He went into the lumber camps, and succeeded in finding the long-lost son, whom he induced after two years to come home. What he witnessed in the camps impressed him with the need of some one to be there, rough and hard, and to be there for the men who work in them, and the establishment of many reading rooms is the result. "Many people think they have to go to heathen countries, and that is not living in heathen fashion," Mr. Fitzpatrick said last night, "but I can tell you that right in the Canadian lumber camps you can see as much vice and wickedness as anywhere else in the world. Heretofore the men have been altogether without good influences, and have been allowed to go down to the bottom of the barrel. They are now, however, as they are, are willing to listen to the message."

SOLDIERS AT DIVINE SERVICE.

The soldiers were on parade yesterday morning. Being the first Sunday preceding Victoria Day the Seventh Regiment marched to church and were addressed by their chaplain, Ven. Archdeacon Davis, in St. James' Church, South London. To get there the soldiers had to pass through the greater part of the city. It was a fine day and many were attracted to witness the march of the city's crack regiment, which never appeared better. The thing was bright, and in good order, and the regiment looked very fine. Their marching also was a subject of admiration. The regiment was headed by a band of brass and bugle bands. Lieut. Col. Little was in command.

Rev. Mr. Davis preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, drawing lessons from the psalmist with Na- bob, which began just a century ago. To look back on some of these events and recall the goodness of God and the bravery of the forefathers of the men he was then addressing, revived the patriotism, and he spoke of the faithfulness to duty that Nelson and Wellington, especially, had exhibited. They had this faithfulness alike to their God and their King.

From their lives he drew the lessons of duty and loyalty and honor. He made a point of the fact that the men of the citizen soldiery to be true men, such as Wellington and Nelson had been.

HEALTH OFFICER HAS HIS TROUBLES WITH NEW RULES

If He Carries Out the Act, He Says, It Will Mean Appointment of Constables.

The scarlet fever and diphtheria regulations recently issued by the Provincial Board of Health came in for some very severe criticism at a meeting of the local board of health held on Saturday afternoon. The discussion on the regulations, which were passed at Toronto on account of the prevalence of fever in many parts of the Province, was aroused by a letter from Medical Health Officer Hutchinson, stating that he was meeting with considerable difficulty in maintaining complete isolation of cases of fever, and asking that he be empowered to appoint sanitary constables should the services be needed.

"If I carry out the act it will mean the appointment of two constables on each house where the fever exists," said the doctor. "Why, if the schools were in session, I would have to make no less than 57 visits in different parts of the city. It is not the work I am objecting to, but I can say that three doctors could not carry out the act with the amount of fever now in the city. If we had an epidemic of the fever here, and the act was complied with, the cost to the city would be enormous, for it is stipulated that complete isolation is to be effected. Two constables would have to be placed on every house."

Dr. Hutchinson added that heretofore

the wage earners in a home had not been interfered with, but under the new regulations even these cannot leave the house. This meant that the whole family had to be locked up for six weeks, the time taken by the disease, and that in many cases the people would have to be kept at the expense of the city. In some instances of late he had managed to induce the heads of families to board away from home during the time the fever was in the house.

BOARD IN DILEMMA.

The board was in something of a dilemma in the matter, as the regulations stated most plainly that patients were to be isolated in a contagious ward at the city hospital is now full, and if the medical health officer experienced any trouble in keeping the members of families at home when the disease was present there was nothing left for it to do but appoint the police. "The regulations are most outrageous," said ex-Ald. Skinner.

There was one ray of hope, for the board, however. The boards in many places were endeavoring to have the regulations modified. The medical health officer was empowered to appoint police wherever required, and in company with the chairman, ex-Ald. Carrothers, he will have a conference with the city solicitor.

Dr. Hutchinson notified the board that Carling's Creek from Richmond street to the river, was in a very dirty state and should be cleaned before the warm weather set in. The chairman was instructed to meet the chairman of the board of works, Ald. Wyatt, and see if the work will not be done at the expense of that body. Heretofore,

When You Want Canned Meats

Give us your order. All our canned meats are fresh and the best brands packed in any key-opening tins.

Fifteen kinds, from 15c up.

TELEPHONE 317.

T. A. Rowat & Co.

234 DUNDAS STREET.

LOCAL PULPITS OCCUPIED

BY TORONTO CLERGYMEN

London Preachers Conduct Anniversaries in Leading Toronto Churches.

Yesterday was the anniversary of two of the leading churches in Toronto, and the services were conducted by clergymen of this city. Rev. W. J. Clark, of the First Presbyterian Church, preached for Rev. John Neil in Westminster Church, and Rev. Dr. Johnston, of St. Andrew's, taking the place of Rev. Dr. J. V. Smith, formerly of London, in the Carlton Street Methodist Church.

The congregations which greeted the Toronto divines were large and interested both morning and evening. Rev. John Neil has been heard here on previous occasions, and Rev. Dr. Johnston is well-known to Londoners, having been stationed here in the Dundas Street, Wellington Street and the First Methodist Churches for several years. Mr. Neil discussed at the morning service the love of Christ, pointing out that the Saviour had come to the earth to establish a kingdom, and that what was true of the earthly kingdom was true also of the heavenly. Christ had come as a King and Saviour, promising pardon, and that what was to be obtained through personal relationship with him. The difference between the early and heavenly kingdom was that Christ never compelled any man to believe, but rather attracted men to learn of him and love him, and so become willing subjects. The great attractive power was that if Christ had come to his followers what method he should adopt to win the world they might have advised him to manifest his all nature shattering and awe-inspiring method chosen by him, and although the disciples murmured and the world forsook him, the wondrous power of the cross was manifested. He had come to win the multitude who came to mock and jeer went away beating their breasts when they saw the scene in darkness and light, and the world was won. The apostles went forth to preach, taking as their central theme the fact of Christ's crucifixion, and wherever the churches were opened and the world threw away their old religion to bow before the cross. The same thing was true in all ages. Every great reform and every true revival of the world has been the result of men who have been faithful to the cross as Christ was his Saviour.

The attractive power of the cross was due to the fact that while the intellect appealed to in a certain degree, the great appeal was to the heart. Nothing could attract like love. Christ's love was manifested through his life, and only when focussed in the cross did it shine forth in its purity and splendor. Every man whose eyes were truly opened saw the Saviour dying not for the world, but for himself, and that was what conquered.

NEW QUARTET.

Miss Rosada Taylor, contralto, sang a solo at the First Methodist Church last night. The London Male Quartet also made its first public appearance, singing "Lead Me On, Kindly Light" (Dudley Buck). The quartet comprises Messrs. Alf Marriott, first tenor; Sydney Glass, second tenor; Ernest Moulton, baritone; Arthur Gartwain, bass.

Miss Morton, lady evangelist, is spending a few days in the city, preaching in the First Methodist Church at both services yesterday, besides speaking to the Sunday school in the afternoon.

SOLDIERS AT DIVINE SERVICE.

The soldiers were on parade yesterday morning. Being the first Sunday preceding Victoria Day the Seventh Regiment marched to church and were addressed by their chaplain, Ven. Archdeacon Davis, in St. James' Church, South London. To get there the soldiers had to pass through the greater part of the city. It was a fine day and many were attracted to witness the march of the city's crack regiment, which never appeared better. The thing was bright, and in good order, and the regiment looked very fine. Their marching also was a subject of admiration. The regiment was headed by a band of brass and bugle bands. Lieut. Col. Little was in command.

Rev. Mr. Davis preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, drawing lessons from the psalmist with Na- bob, which began just a century ago. To look back on some of these events and recall the goodness of God and the bravery of the forefathers of the men he was then addressing, revived the patriotism, and he spoke of the faithfulness to duty that Nelson and Wellington, especially, had exhibited. They had this faithfulness alike to their God and their King.

From their lives he drew the lessons of duty and loyalty and honor. He made a point of the fact that the men of the citizen soldiery to be true men, such as Wellington and Nelson had been.

HEALTH OFFICER HAS HIS TROUBLES WITH NEW RULES

If He Carries Out the Act, He Says, It Will Mean Appointment of Constables.

The scarlet fever and diphtheria regulations recently issued by the Provincial Board of Health came in for some very severe criticism at a meeting of the local board of health held on Saturday afternoon. The discussion on the regulations, which were passed at Toronto on account of the prevalence of fever in many parts of the Province, was aroused by a letter from Medical Health Officer Hutchinson, stating that he was meeting with considerable difficulty in maintaining complete isolation of cases of fever, and asking that he be empowered to appoint sanitary constables should the services be needed.

"If I carry out the act it will mean the appointment of two constables on each house where the fever exists," said the doctor. "Why, if the schools were in session, I would have to make no less than 57 visits in different parts of the city. It is not the work I am objecting to, but I can say that three doctors could not carry out the act with the amount of fever now in the city. If we had an epidemic of the fever here, and the act was complied with, the cost to the city would be enormous, for it is stipulated that complete isolation is to be effected. Two constables would have to be placed on every house."

Dr. Hutchinson added that heretofore

the wage earners in a home had not been interfered with, but under the new regulations even these cannot leave the house. This meant that the whole family had to be locked up for six weeks, the time taken by the disease, and that in many cases the people would have to be kept at the expense of the city. In some instances of late he had managed to induce the heads of families to board away from home during the time the fever was in the house.

BOARD IN DILEMMA.

The board was in something of a dilemma in the matter, as the regulations stated most plainly that patients were to be isolated in a contagious ward at the city hospital is now full, and if the medical health officer experienced any trouble in keeping the members of families at home when the disease was present there was nothing left for it to do but appoint the police. "The regulations are most outrageous," said ex-Ald. Skinner.

There was one ray of hope, for the board, however. The boards in many places were endeavoring to have the regulations modified. The medical health officer was empowered to appoint police wherever required, and in company with the chairman, ex-Ald. Carrothers, he will have a conference with the city solicitor.

Dr. Hutchinson notified the board that Carling's Creek from Richmond street to the river, was in a very dirty state and should be cleaned before the warm weather set in. The chairman was instructed to meet the chairman of the board of works, Ald. Wyatt, and see if the work will not be done at the expense of that body. Heretofore, the wage earners in a home had not been interfered with, but under the new regulations even these cannot leave the house. This meant that the whole family had to be locked up for six weeks, the time taken by the disease, and that in many cases the people would have to be kept at the expense of the city. In some instances of late he had managed to induce the heads of families to board away from home during the time the fever was in the house.

BOARD IN DILEMMA.

The board was in something of a dilemma in the matter, as the regulations stated most plainly that patients were to be isolated in a contagious ward at the city hospital is now full, and if the medical health officer experienced any trouble in keeping the members of families at home when the disease was present there was nothing left for it to do but appoint the police. "The regulations are most outrageous," said ex-Ald. Skinner.

There was one ray of hope, for the board, however. The boards in many places were endeavoring to have the regulations modified. The medical health officer was empowered to appoint police wherever required, and in company with the chairman, ex-Ald. Carrothers, he will have a conference with the city solicitor.

Dr. Hutchinson notified the board that Carling's Creek from Richmond street to the river, was in a very dirty state and should be cleaned before the warm weather set in. The chairman was instructed to meet the chairman of the board of works, Ald. Wyatt, and see if the work will not be done at the expense of that body. Heretofore, the wage earners in a home had not been interfered with, but under the new regulations even these cannot leave the house. This meant that the whole family had to be locked up for six weeks, the time taken by the disease, and that in many cases the people would have to be kept at the expense of the city. In some instances of late he had managed to induce the heads of families to board away from home during the time the fever was in the house.

BOARD IN DILEMMA.

The board was in something of a dilemma in the matter, as the regulations stated most plainly that patients were to be isolated in a contagious ward at the city hospital is now full, and if the medical health officer experienced any trouble in keeping the members of families at home when the disease was present there was nothing left for it to do but appoint the police. "The regulations are most outrageous," said ex-Ald. Skinner.

There was one ray of hope, for the board, however. The boards in many places were endeavoring to have the regulations modified. The medical health officer was empowered to appoint police wherever required, and in company with the chairman, ex-Ald. Carrothers, he will have a conference with the city solicitor.

Dr. Hutchinson notified the board that Carling's Creek from Richmond street to the river, was in a very dirty state and should be cleaned before the warm weather set in. The chairman was instructed to meet the chairman of the board of works, Ald. Wyatt, and see if the work will not be done at the expense of that body. Heretofore, the wage earners in a home had not been interfered with, but under the new regulations even these cannot leave the house. This meant that the whole family had to be locked up for six weeks, the time taken by the disease, and that in many cases the people would have to be kept at the expense of the city. In some instances of late he had managed to induce the heads of families to board away from home during the time the fever was in the house.

BOARD IN DILEMMA.

The board was in something of a dilemma in the matter, as the regulations stated most plainly that patients were to be isolated in a contagious ward at the city hospital is now full, and if the medical health officer experienced any trouble in keeping the members of families at home when the disease was present there was nothing left for it to do but appoint the police. "The regulations are most outrageous," said ex-Ald. Skinner.

There was one ray of hope, for the board, however. The boards in many places were endeavoring to have the regulations modified. The medical health officer was empowered to appoint police wherever required, and in company with the chairman, ex-Ald. Carrothers, he will have a conference with the city solicitor.

Dr. Hutchinson notified the board that Carling's Creek from Richmond street to the river, was in a very dirty state and should be cleaned before the warm weather set in. The chairman was instructed to meet the chairman of the board of works, Ald. Wyatt, and see if the work will not be done at the expense of that body. Heretofore,

A Clever Rescue.

New York, May 18.—The Hamburg-American Line steamer Auguste Victoria arrived Saturday from Hamburg with a story of a record rescue at sea. On May 8 a coal trimmer fell overboard. A boat was lowered and the man saved inside of eight minutes.

Miss Stone Wants Redress.

Washington, May 18.—The state department Saturday received a long letter from Miss Ellen M. Stone, demanding damages from the Turkish Government on account of outrages perpetrated upon her by the brigands who captured and held her prisoner while she was in the Turkish Empire. Miss Stone does not fix any amount as a basis of her claim. The letter is written from Portage, Ont.

<