Byron Bridge Site Deal. The water commissioners decided at yesterday afternoon's meeting to lay a six-inch main along Piccadilly street, from Adelaide to Elizabeth streets. It was decided to grant the request of the Western Fair board for the usual floral decorations for the fountain at the lair. Mr. W. E. Saunders wrote to say that he had been looking into the investiga-tions at Washington of copper surphate vater, and referred the letter to the water, and referred the letter to the chairman.

The average daily pumping, according to the report, for Aug. 16 to 31, was 3.829,094 gallons, the maximum having been 4,080,027 gallons, and the minimum 2,937,872. The total amount of water pumped during August was 108,686,132 gallons.

An agreement between the City.

An agreement between the City of London and the Township of Westminster for the purchase by the latter of the land for the Byron bridge approach for $50, was presented by the secretary. The board was divided as to whether the $50 had to be paid by the township or by $50 had to be paid by the township or by the city, but the agreement was signed.

London Presbytery Decides to Elect Its Commissioners as Heretofore.

The Presbytery of London resumed ts sittings yesterday afternoon in the First Presbyterian Church at 1:30. Mr. Logie Macdonnell, M. A., and Mr. Walter L. Nichol, B. A., students, laboring within the bounds of the presbytery, were examined and recommended to their colleges. Both young men hold a high place in the esteem of the presbytery.

Attention was called to the fact that many of the young people's societies had not sent in their levy towards the expenses of the Presbyterial. The presbytery urged all ministers to see that their societies do so. Rev. W. J. Clark moved that here after in the election of commissioners to the general assembly, two ministers and two elders be elected by ballot, the others to be sent by rotation. Dr.

Merchant seconded the motion.
Dr. McDonald and Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Douglas, elders spoke against the Rev. Frank Ballantyne, Mr. Rollins Mr. Currie, Mr. Hosie, Dr. Merchant, Mr. Barnett, Dr. McCrae and Mr. MacKay took part in the discussion.

Mr. Clark's motion was voted down by a large majority. Mr. Langford, from Proof Line con gregation, asked for the consideration of the reunion of Proof Line with Vanneck. A committee consisting of Mr. Wilson, Dr. McCrae, Mr. Geddes, Dr. Merchant, Mr. Fisher and Mr Adam Baty were appointed to look into this important matter. tation committee's report, and delegations to visit the various fields wer Rev. D. Kelso moved that copies o the printed minutes be sent to all members of sessions. This was carried. After transacting much routine business the presbytery adjourned to meet at 10:30 a,m, on the first Tuesday in December in St. Andrew's Church.
