Mr. A. W. Pinero has an unusual method of writing his plays. His working day does not begin until that ct the average city man is over. In the morning he goes out, preferably on his bicycle, returning in time for an early dinner. Then he has a comfortable sleep, and on waking up, late in the afternoon he prepares for business. After a cup of tea he goes to his desk and remains working at his play

PAIN IS A PUNISHMENT.-Pain is a rotest of nature against neglect of the bodily health, against carelessness regard-ing the physical condition. It steals in at the first opportunity, and takes up its abode in a man, and it is sometimes dif-ficult to eject it. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will drive it out in short order. Pain cannot stay where it is used, but immediately flees away.
