USERS' STANDPOINT

Satisfactorily solves problem of heating in congested districts.
Reduces fire risks and insurance rates.
Eliminates ashes and dust which results from ashes.

OUR STANDPOINT

Turns a waste product (exhaust steam) into a revenue producer.
Helps us develop a business in London to meet the competition of firms located in garment-workers' cities, like Montreal, etc.

YOUR STANDPOINT

Increases your comfort in shopping or working in a store.
Pipes crossing street on rental basis, producing revenue for city.
Helps eliminate smoke nuisance, by abolishing individual chimneys.
Ours is equipped with smoke consumer.
Means expenditure of thousands of dollars by company and merchants completing equipment.
Great bulk of this expenditure on private property, not on the street.
Local firms only will tender on contracts.
Practically no inconveniences to public in brief time required to cross a street.
Positive guarantee that small openings in pavements will be perfectly and permanently re-paved.
Your 1913 representatives on city council approved this bylaw, and submit it to comply with letter of law.

Greene-Swift Limited

HAVE NEVER asked you for tax exemption.
HAVE NEVER asked you for a loan.
HAVE NEVER asked you for fixed assessment.
DO pay over $5,000 per week in wages.
DO employ 16 travellers, bringing business to London.
DO solicit your support of this bylaw.

WEDDING AT MOUNT BRYDGES.
Mount Brydges, Dec. 31. — A very quiet wedding was solemnized at London on Dec. 24, when Miss Pearl M. Reynolds, of Longwood, became the bride of Mr. Wm. H. Peters, of Mount Brydges. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. W. Wicketh, of London. The bride, who was unattended, was handsomely gowned in Copenhagen blue silk. Her travelling suit was of navy blue serge, with hat to match. The happy couple left at 2:45 p.m. for Owosso, Detroit, and other western points. On their return they will take up their residence on lot 12, con. 5, Caradoc, where they will be at home to their friends after Jan. 1.
