BELLEVILLE YOUTH

W. Clark, 19. Makes Extended Trip at Expense of Railroad Companies.

SENTENCED IN DETROIT

Will Serve 5 Years For Purloining $52 Found on Store Floor.

From New York to Frisco, and from New Orleans to the Great Lakes as the uninvited guest of the big railroad corporations is the record of William Clark, 19 years old, of Belleville, Ontario, whose migratory career was abruptly terminated Saturday in the Detroit recorder's court, when Judge Thomas M. Cotter sentenced him to the state reformatory at Ionia for from two to five years. Clarke pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny. Driven from home at Belleville by alleged cruel treatment accorded him by relatives, the prisoner told Michi-gan police that he finally ran away to the States. Unfitted for skilled labor, he easily drifted into the ranks of America's huge army of "floaters," and worked for periods ranging from a few hours to a week or so in practically every state in the union, and most of the cities of any size or dis-
