Stratford Organization Holds Success Membership Drive Last Week.

Stratford, March 29 .- The Stratford Poultry and Pet Stock Association made a gain of 67 members in the drive of the past week. The committee working on the question of the Perth county association is getting in touch with associations of different towns and individual fanciers of the county and is meeting with reasonable success. Burglars entered the home of E. M. Wegenast and stole $100 in cash, a watch and a fur coat. The family was not disturbed, although the night visitors apparently went through the house quite thoroughly, according to traces noted by the police.

A British government experiment in colonization will be tried out in Perth county, as well as in other parts of the province this year. Under the soldiers' settlement plan a num ber of men were given farms, but being incapable of handling them, have given them up. The government is planning to bring over 3,000 Scotch, tamilies and establish them on these farms. Two families will come to Perth county this spring, one each to Ellice and Blanshard townships. One of them has twelve members, including the parents, and the other four. Representatives of the city council and the police made a tour of inspection of the city streets to consider any needed changes in the traffic laws. Hon George S. Henry has advised that the question of uniform laws for the province is under discussion and advising that any pro-jected change by the municipality should be referred to the department for scrutiny. Among other matters to be considered is the through street

The agricultural committee of the city council has decided to recom-mend that the sum of $1,200 be used to assist in the expense of extending the grandstand at the agricultural park. The money has been arranged for in the estimates.
