THE ONLY ISSUE.

There is one issue and only one now before the people of British Columbia, and it is whether or not responsible govwill arise some questions as to policy; but these and every other consideration must be relegated to the rear until it has been decided if we have any part of responsible government left. The action All the or died for the first and produced or provided by the product of the first and the control of the first and the first an responsible government left. The action lieutenant-governors may be dismissed, not only without the people of the provthe dismissal. An unscrupulous federal ministry might therefore at any time call upon a lieutenant-governor to dismiss his ministry and in the event of his refusal remove him and appoint a his refusal remove him and appoint a to find some one to fill it. With the successor who would do so, and it could do this because it had a majority from some other province large enough to support it in so doing. Thus one province port it in so doing. Thus one province than one instance he made judicial apport the release of business are carried on in the situation so as to advance the interests of any particular individual, but of his injecting himself as a political factor into the affairs of the country.
