KILLED DEER.

A Kedgwick resident was up before His Honor accused of killing deer, was found guilty and fined $20.00 and costs. The information was laid by Warden Chas. Gray.

NO CELEBRATION HERE.

No move has been taken to celebrate the coming of peace, so far as our citizens are concerned and we suggest that as many of our citizens as possible go to Dalhousie for the day.

POOR ANGLING.

The salmon anglers are having an off season. The water is so low and warm that although there are plenty of salmon in the pools none can be caught.

GOING TO KEDGWICK.

Police Magistrate Matheson has been requested by the Local Government to proceed to Kedgwick to hear the cases against settlers for setting fires contrary to law.

GOOD CROP PROSPECTS.

Crops throughout the Bay Chaleur are in excellent condition. The recent rain has been very beneficial and things look bright for good crops in all lines.

IN AID OF SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

A Garden Party and Supper in aid of the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, will be held on the School Grounds, Tide Head, on Thursday evening, July 17th. Everyone come and help swell the funds for such a worthy object. July 10-2-wks.

Mr. Reuben Dickie has taken his former position as night clerk at the Post Office, after four years service at the front.

BUSY AGAIN.

The government wharf is a very busy spot just now. One large steamer and a four masted schooner and a small schooner are all loading lumber.

AN INTERESTING VISITOR.

An interesting visitor to our town last week was Mr. D. B. McGee, lately of Port Daniel, but who has been a Can. Customs Officer on the North Shore of Labrador, for over thirty years. He tells many interesting events of that out of the way place. He has been at Wolfville, N. S., where he expects to buy a home and reside the rest of his days.

BLESSING OF THE BELLS.

The blessing of the three bells at the new Roman Catholic Church, Carleton, will be held on Thursday, July 24th at four p.m. His Lordship Bishop Gauthier of Montreal, will preside at the services, assisted by other noted preachers. The parish priest, Father Verreault, invites the public generally to be present at these services.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Roadmaster Hamilton was held from his home Friday afternoon at 2:30 p.m., internment taking place in the Rural Cemetery of Campbellton. Rev. Hugh Miller officiated, assisted by Rev. J. H. McLean of Dalhousie. In spite of rain the funeral was largely attended and the following beautiful flowers testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Pillow—Wife and family. Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. Killam, Mr. and Mrs. V. Ramsay. Spray—Jean Jardine. Spray—Mrs. J. F. Andrew and family. Bouquet—Mr. John LeBlanc. Spray—Mr. and Mrs. John Collier. Sheaf—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor. PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting will be held Friday evening in the Council Chamber to discuss the matter of issuing debentures for the purpose of building a Fire Station and Town Hall. Every ratepayer should attend and hear the argument pro and con.

CORMIER-WALSH.

A quiet but pretty marriage was solemnized on Tuesday morning July 8th at St. Jules Church, Grand Casca, Que., when Miss Susie Walsh second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Walsh of Grand Casca, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward Cormier of Detroit Mich. Rev. Father Morin officiating.

The bride who was given away by her father was becomingly dressed in white satin and georgette, with black picture hat. The bridal party left the church as the wedding march was played by Miss Bijod, and motored to the home of the bride, where a reception was held for the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The bride received many valuable gifts including silver, china, cut-glass and money. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue serge with hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Cormier left at 2:30 a.m. and motored to Campbellton enroute to their home in Detroit. The bride was accompanied by her parents and two sisters, Mrs. Boileau and Hilda, and Dr. Boileau. The groom was accompanied by his father and two sisters, Mrs. Cyr and Lea of Degeot, Michigan, also quite a few other immediate friends. All their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Cormier a long and happy wedded life.
