

MUCH WORSE THAN WHISKY.

The Ginger-Drinking Habit as Bad as Opium Eating or Cocaine Taking.
From the Dominion.

Few people are aware of the extent of a peculiar kind of dissipation known as ginger drinking. The article used in the several proprietary preparations known to the trade, or the alcoholic extracts ordinarily sold over the druggist's counter. Having once acquired a liking for it the victim becomes as much the slave to his appetite as the opium eater or the victim of cocaine. In its effects it is much the same as the use of the latter, for in the course of time it destroys the coating of the stomach and causes its victim to be a slow and agonizing death.

The druggist who sold me about the thing says that as ginger essence contains nearly 100 per cent. of alcohol and whisky less than 50 per cent., the former is therefore twice as intoxicating. In fact, it is the reason why it is used by hardened old toppers whose stomachs are no longer capable of intoxicating stimulation from whisky. They need the more powerful agency of the pure alcohol in the ginger extract. He told me that he had one customer—a woman who had contracted the habit through employing the ginger on several occasions for stomachic purposes. She relied upon a recurrence of her trouble. She found, too, that the slight stimulation of the alcohol banished mental depression. In this way she got to using it regularly, and finally to such excess that she was often grossly intoxicated.

Large doses produce a quiet stupor. Additional doses produce a profound and lethargic slumber which will last in some cases for twenty-four hours. His other customers, however, who cause it a certain every morning, bought a four-ounce bottle and drank its contents by noon. The man drank it until he was unable to get up, and then he was carried to his home. The circulation of the blood by means of the ginger draught. He says that the habit is well known to the drug trade.

A Success.
McKendry, the purveyor of high prices, last summer conceived the idea of selling a special bargain below regular price. The success of this idea was so great that he was prompted to repeat the experiment. He was successful. The success of this idea was so great that he was prompted to repeat the experiment. He was successful.

A Good Test.
What everyone knows must be true, or have come from a reliable source, and everyone who has tested it says that it is the best. It is a good test. It is a good test. It is a good test.

The Leading Wholesale Cigar House.
One of the finest houses of imported cigars to be had in Canada may be found at Mr. Chas. Lowe's, 48 Front Street East. The success of this idea was so great that he was prompted to repeat the experiment. He was successful.

Next week we shall commence our Island delivery, and have made special arrangements for an earlier and much more satisfactory delivery than in previous years.

A Tip to the Public.
When you go to buy dry goods go to a pair of goods store. When you go to buy a pair of goods go to a pair of goods store. When you go to buy a pair of goods go to a pair of goods store.
