

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindsay, Ont.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank Mrs. Pinkham for what her kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I wrote to her some time ago I was a very sick woman, suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the female organs, and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend this medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and think they are fine."—Mrs. FRANK EMSLEY, Lindsay, Ontario.

We cannot understand why women will take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, without first trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration.

Your Town.

More towns die for want of confidence on the part of business men and lack of public spirit than any other cause. When a man in search of a home or business location goes into a town and finds every citizen brim full of hope and enthusiasm of the prospects of the place and all earnestly at work to build it up, he soon becomes imbued with the same spirit, and as a result he decides to remain and goes to work with the same interest. When, however, he goes to a town where everyone expresses doubt or apprehension for the future prosperity of the place, moping about and indulging in mournful complaints, he naturally feels that it is no place for him, and at once shakes the dust off his feet, while he pulls out with all possible speed for some other place. Consequently try and make a live, enterprising town out of the one in which you live. When you are working or saying a good thing for your town, you are accomplishing all the more for yourself.

It doesn't cost very much to please a woman, but keeping her pleased is what causes many a man to go broke.

Danger in Rest.

British medical journals have been discussing the question whether intellectual work shortens life. The Lancet gives the question an emphatically negative answer. Mere intellectual labor, it says, whether it be of the profound type that scientists and philosophers habitually indulge in, or the lighter toil of barristers, business men, and others who work with their heads, does no harm; indeed, it sometimes serves to keep the physical condition fit and trim.

The Lancet adds that there is truth in the old adage that it is not the work that kills, it is the worry that kills. Any man with sound physical and mental equipment, fair luck, and opportunities, can work hard, often to an advanced age; but emotional stresses are harmful. Among emotional stresses it classes unpaid bills and the use of the telephone.

The Philadelphia Evening Post recently contained an interesting article giving a number of instances in which men who retired from business at a comparatively early age had collapsed apparently from disuse of their faculties. It suggested that the only safe way to prepare for retirement was to cultivate a hobby. And when a man is so wholly engrossed in business that he has no other interests, he is very apt to find himself uneasy in retirement. He is not a reader. His familiar friends are business men. He tries to keep up the acquaintance and finds that his lack of knowledge of current business movements places him at a disadvantage in conversation. So he begins to wish himself at work again. A hobby, ridden hard, seems to be the only preventive.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

A Scotch Marriage.

By the act of 1856 the parties sign in the presence of two witnesses a declaration that they take each other as husband and wife. They then present a petition to the sheriff, asking him to certify that they have been married, and that one or both of them had their usual residence in Scotland before the marriage, or had resided there for 21 days preceding it. This petition may be presented within three months of the declaration constituting the marriage, but is usually presented within three hours. The parties and witnesses attend before the sheriff and the witnesses confirm on oath the statements of fact. The sheriff thereupon grants a warrant to the registrar to register the marriage. The registration can be completed at once. The whole procedure only takes an hour or two and the cost is only a few shillings. On the eve of the new year and summer holidays there is a constant procession of newly married couples and their witnesses before the sheriff in Glasgow. The suitors are principally drawn from the artisan classes and the classes below them, but there is usually a sprinkling of a better class.—The Spectator.

The Calf and the Augur Hole.

Jim Hudnell, who resides near Pochick, Va., recently opened a tanyard in that small hamlet, and offered himself to the public as a purchaser of hides. There being no sign painter within a score of miles he be thought himself of a cheap and novel method whereby folk might be informed in his line in trade. Boring an augur hole in the door of the yard he cut the tail from a fresh calfskin and stuck the butt end of it in the hole, proclaiming thereby to the world that he was a dealer in hides, hair, and such like wares.

The day after he had flung to the breeze this hairy emblem of his calling, he looked forth from his window and saw standing before the tan-yard door a chin-whiskered farmer, silently chewing a straw and gazing in deep contemplation upon the calf tail. Him Jim approached.

"Want to sell any hides?" he asked.

"Nope," was the laconic reply.

"Want to buy any?" was the next query.

"Nope," came again from the steady gazing farmer.

"Want to buy any leather?" was Jim's further question.

"Nope," answered the hayseed.

"Well, what do you want and what are ye, anyhow?" exclaimed Jim in irritated tones.

"I reckon I'm what ye call one o' these hyah scientists," returned the farmer, whose eye had never left the calf tail. "I'm trying ter figger out how inarnation that air calf ever got through that air augur hole."

Morgan Gets Four Months.

S. B. Morgan, of Kerwood, was sentenced to four months in the county jail with hard labor without the option of a fine by Squire E. B. Smith, of Ailsa Craig, at the courthouse, London, on Thursday, for the illegal sale of liquor in the vicinity of Kerwood.

"The evidence clearly shows," said the magistrate in passing sentence, "that Morgan is guilty of a breach of the Liquor License Act and has wilfully defied the law by selling beer in the vicinity of Kerwood and making a profit thereon, and also setting himself up as the authorized agent of the Walkerville Brewing Company, which he was not."

Morgan claimed that he was an authorized agent of the Walkerville Brewing Company and had taken orders for beer from a number of residents of the village of Kerwood. These he had mailed to Walkerville and had received the beer through their agents in Strathroy, delivering it to his customers at $1.25 a case, and where he could collect it, an additional 25 cents per case for cartage from Strathroy.

The Walkerville people deny having appointed Morgan their agent in Kerwood, and refused to give him any help in his defence.

Western Fair's Poultry Show.

The poultry exhibit at the coming exhibition in September promises to be larger than ever this year. The silver cups that were donated by the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association are still offered this year; also silver cup for the best collection of S. C. Brown Leghorns. The Canadian Partridge Wyandotte Club offers handsome badge ribbons, also challenge cups. The Canadian Barred Plymouth Rock Club offers silk badges. The Canadian Silver Wyandotte Club offers silk badges, also silver challenge cup for best cockerel and pullet. The American Black Minorca Club offers silk ribbons. Dr. Pingle, of London, is offering $10 cash special, which is divided into four prizes, for the heaviest dozen eggs, entries to be made by farmers' wives only. In addition to the above specials several sections have been added to the regular prize list, which makes it very attractive this year, and it is fully expected that the poultry building will be crowded to overflowing with the finest lot of birds ever brought together at any previous exhibition. Prize lists, entry forms and all other information sent on application to the Secretary, general offices, London, Ont.

Walkerville still maintains its position as the most lightly-taxed town in Canada, the rate for the year being fixed at 13 mills. Last year's rate was 11 5/10 mills. The slight increase now is due to the cost of building new sewers and an increase in Public School estimates.

CURED OF CONSTIPATION

Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N.S., writes:

"For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. Medicine after medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. It seemed that nothing would expel from me the one ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

That was indeed a lucky day for me, for I was so impressed with the statements made that I determined to give them a fair trial.

They have regulated my stomach and bowels. I am cured of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys, with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

Cured His Rheumatism In Three Weeks.

James LeB. Johnstone, a prominent member of the Citizen's Band, of Chatham, writes:

Rev. Father Morrissey

Father Morrissey's "No. 7" Tablets

have cured thousands of this terribly painful disease.

Rheumatism is generally brought on by exposure, but is really caused by Uric Acid in the blood. This Uric Acid is an irritating poison, formed from the waste matter of the body. The kidneys should remove it, but when they fail it poisons the blood, and, settling in the joints, causes Rheumatism.

"No. 7" Tablets clear out the clogged-up Kidneys and stimulate them to perform their task of filtering the Uric Acid out of the blood. When this is done the Rheumatism simply and naturally vanishes.

"No. 7" Tablets cost 50c. At your dealer's. 28
