to tender felicitations. A very enjoyable evening was spent and dainty refreshments were served.

The annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society will be held on Tuesday morning, Nov. 4th at 10 o'clock in the Board of Trade rooms. All members are requested to be present. Persons wishing to unite with the society may become members on paying one dollar and signing the constitution.

Do not forget the Concert in the Court House, Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Children's Aid Society. A good programme has been prepared and the cause is a most worthy one.

WEDDING.

Smith—Daniels.
A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday morning, Oct. 15th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Daniels, Lawrence town, when their daughter Eva Odessa was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Norman Smith, of Hampton, New Brunswick. Rev. Arthur H. Whitman, pastor of the Lawrence town United Baptist church officiating.

At the hour of 9.30 a.m. to the strains of the bridal chorus of Lohengrin played by Mrs. Arthur H. Whitman, the contracting parties entered the parlour and took their position under a beautiful arch of autumn leaves. A very pretty touch to the scene was the entrance of the daintily attired little flower girl Evelyn Whitman, niece of the bride, who preceded the bridal party, scattering roses hither and thither in the path of the bride.

The bride looked charming indeed, dressed in a beautiful gown of soft grey canton crepe embroidered with pink and gold, and carrying a lovely bouquet of opelia roses and maiden-hair ferns. Her going away dress was of navy pique twill, with hat to match. Only the immediate relatives and friends of the happy couple were present. The gifts were beautiful and appropriate, consisting of silver, crystal, linen and several substantial cheques, testifying to the popularity of the bride both in her home town, and in Bridgetown, where with her partner Miss Buckler, she had carried on a flourishing business for several years in the firm so well and favorably known as Buckler & Daniels.

After a very bountiful wedding repast, Mr. and Mrs. Smith motored to Digby, where they embarked for St. John, en route to their future home in Hampton, N. B.

Mr. Smith is one of the promising young New Brunswick farmers and as deservedly popular and highly respected in his home town. Their many friends unite in wishing the happy couple bon voyage.

JOHN WHYNOT IS

KILLED INSTANTLY.

proceeded to the scene of the tragedy. When the jury met on Wednesday night the evidence of young Sabean was taken as noted above. Next morning the jury went out and viewed the scene of the shooting and also examined other witnesses. Chief Bishop related the position in which he found the body as well as other matters of detail. Mr. John Clarke gave evidence, the substance of which is given above. Mrs. Bernice Pickett was another witness. She went to Jesse Sabean's house on Wednesday afternoon with her sister and both boys were there talking about how they would spend their money. Earle wanted to go out into the woods with the gun, but his grandmother, Mrs. Allan said he should not be allowed to. Mrs. Sabean said he was all right. He had been out before and shot partridges. She wanted him, however, to pick some apples. She searched his pockets and took away all but three cartridges. Witness did not know which boy took the gun out of the house. His mother remonstrated with Earle but did not forbid him to go.

The jury who went into the matter pretty thoroughly and carefully brought in the following verdict: That about five o'clock on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 15th, 1924, John Whynot came to his death in the Chipman pasture, so called, near the town of Bridgetown by a gun shot wound that penetrated the head and fractured both left and right side of skull, killing the deceased instantly.

That the firearm responsible for the death of the deceased was in the hands of his companion, Earle Sabean. That the evidence obtained leads us to believe that the deceased met his death through the careless handling of firearms by Earle Sabean.

The course taken by the charge of shot would indicate that the gun was fired from an elevation not less than John Whynot's head. Had it discharged from the ground the course of the shot would naturally have been on an upward angle.

The unfortunate occurrence indicates the need of greater caution by boys out in the woods. Mrs. John Clarke had a narrow escape from being shot near the same locality through careless shooting presumably by boys and a short time ago Mr. Gilbert Lowe found a young cold of his shot in its pasture.

MARRIED.

Sullivan—Rodgers.

Rev. Father Gray officiated at the marriage at 6 o'clock yesterday morning in St. Joseph's Church, of two young people, who enjoy great popularity, the principals in the ceremony being Clara Helena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rodgers, Agricola street, now of Somerville, Mass., and formerly of this city. In spite of the early hour for the ceremony a large group of friends were present to witness it, the bride, who was given in marriage by her father, being a most attractive figure in her suit of dark blue, worn with grey hose and shoes, fitch fur, and large black picture hat. She was attended by Miss Kathleen O'Dwyer as bridesmaid, the latter wearing a smart suit of navy blue, with fitch fur and sand colored hat, Norman Rodgers, brother of the bride, attending as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony and followed by the best wishes of a very host of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left for a four weeks' trip to the United States, at the conclusion of which they will take up their residence here, where a warm welcome awaits them.

The collection of wedding gifts was large and valuable one, including silver, cut glass, a number of substantial cheques, including one from the father of the bride, fine china, etc.—(Mail.)

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, of Halifax, were guests at her aunts, Mrs. W. A. Crowe, a couple of days last week, on their way to Somerville, Mass., where they will spend a few weeks with the groom's parents.
