

Mr. John Glen, whose advertisement appears in another column, wishes to call the attention of clubs who may require new uniforms to the fact that he is prepared to furnish them at the lowest cash prices. This is the season of the year when new uniforms are chosen, and before deciding on anything it would be well to get samples and prices from him. Apart from bicycle uniforms he is one of the most fashionable tailors in town, and we can recommend him to anyone wanting a nobby suit. Don't forget his address. West End House, 415 Richmond St.

Bicycles and Sundries F.O.B. Toronto, at catalogue prices.

Bicycles shipped C.O.D., but cash must accompany orders for sundries.

The above machines will be here the first of March, and are all made from material carefully selected, the forks of the S.B.C. are made a little heavier than usual. Without a doubt these Bicycles are bound to supersede any previous importations.

The past three years Singer & Co. have been well posted, and schooled in all the requirements for a first-class Canadian Roadster.

For further particulars see large Catalogue.
