

THE TRUE CHRISTIAN.

He endeavors continually to walk with God, and to have his conversation in heaven; so that in the midst of company, and in his converse among men, he often lifts up his mind in holy ejaculations to heaven. Phil. iii: 20.

He walks in a lively sense of God's omniscience and omnipresence, and prefers the will and favor of God before that of men. Psalm cxxxix.

He endeavors that his prayers be as frequent as his wants, and his thanksgiving as his blessings. 1 Tim. iv: 4, 5.

To advance the glory of his Maker, is the very centre of all his actions; and the doing His will the very joy of his soul, and the conversion of sinners his great delight. Psalm xi: 8.

As his love is wholly fixed upon God, which is an infinite good; so his hatred has no other object but sin, which is an infinite evil. Psalm xiv: 7.

The virtuous and wise are only his guests, which makes him a companion of those that love God, and his delight is among the saints. Psalm cxix: 63.

He strives more to be grave and modest, than to have the reputation of being accounted witty. Eph. v: 15.

He is not only careful of his time, but of his company too; and is more anxious to know himself than to know others. 1. Cor. v: 11.

He abhors the thought of undermining his neighbor or cheating the ignorant; and is ever striving to be a stranger to envy and malice; 1. Cor. xiv: 20.

He follows not the opinion or example of the worst, but of the best of Christians. Phil. iii: 17.

He is so good a husband of his time, as to improve it in doing good to himself and others; for he sees the most busy man must find a time to die, though he will not find a time to prepare for it. Luke xxi: 34.

He cheerfully resigns his will to the Divine will of his Father who is in heaven; for he knows that all things come by His decree or wise permission. Job i: 21.—Episcopal Recorder.
