

Never Was The Need So Great

A Word to you Young People

FROM the days when you, as a little tot, trudged proudly along with your little reward ticket clutched in your tiny hand to now when you enter your Senior or organized Bible Class room, you have been under the wonderful guiding influence of the Sunday School and your teachers.

More than you will ever realize, your future will have been shaped by your Sunday School days.

Of course, you have appreciated what your teachers were doing for you—you have enjoyed the Sunday afternoons and the Class activities, but—and here is the point—have you ever thought of trying to repay in some measure for the benefits that have been yours? Have you ever pictured yourself as a teacher of God's Word to those growing up after you? Never was the need for trained teachers so great. It is a wonderful service. The opportunity is yours.

So that you may train and fit yourself for this work of the Master, the new Standard Teacher Training Course, approved by our own Sunday School and Y.P.S. Board, has been published. The books are of handy pocket size and are most interesting. While their study is advisable in a training group, it is not absolutely necessary; you can train yourself.
