Torouto Priests Retreat

Torouto Priests Retreat

The annual retreat for the clergy of the Archdiocece of Toronto will be held this year at the Hospice of Mount Carmel, Niagara Falls, Ont. The creises will commence July 9 and will be conducted by Very R.v. Prior Macdonald. The retreats for Catholic teachers will be held in August. As on former coassions, a special train will leave the Now York Central depot on July 16th to convey Buffalonians to the Sapular festival. Very Rev. Father Methalo, C.M., of the Riagara University, will be the preacher on the coassion. The Hospice is now open, equipped with every modern convenience. The Carmelite Fathers cordally invite intending guests and retreatants.—Union and Times.

St. Holou's.

The closing exercises and distribution of the prizes of St. Helen's School took place last wook and were largely attended. The pupils acquatted themselves with credit and received the congratulations of their paster and a hearty wish for pleasant holidays and a return to achool with an increased appetite for study.

St. Paul's.

The closing exercises of St. Paul's Schools took place last week and were very successful in every respect. The program of entertainments furnished by the pupils for their relatives and friends was exceedingly well given and reflected great credit on themselves and their teachers.

Our Lady of Lourdes.

Our Lady of Lourdes.

There were married at this church last week, by the Rev. J. M. Cruise, Mr. Michael Martin and Miss Orla McGuiro. Miss Aires McCarron was bridesmaid and Mr. James Wright acted in the capacity of best man. A reception was held, after the ceremony, at the residence of the bride's parents, of Wood St., at which a large number of the immediate relatives and friends were present. In the evening the newly married couple left on a trip to Buffalo and other cities.

De La Salle.

The closing exercises of this institution were held on Thursday, June 28. There were present Rev. Fathers Ryan, Oruise, Hand, Finnegan, Wolsh, Lalor, Richardson and Mesers. D. A. Carey, chairman of the Separate School Beard; Eugene O'Keefe, J. G. O'Donohue and many other relatives and friends of the pupils. Rev. Father Ryan presented the pupils. Rev. Father Ryan presented the pupils. Rev. Father Ryan presented the pupils on their success, and the Christian brothers on the state of efficiency to which they had brought the pupils, and the parents on being so fortunate as to have such a system of education for their children—a system, the aim of which was to establish first of all a foundation with religion as its basis—the only true, leating and real education, and in this the Separate differed from the Public Schools. The Rev. Father took coasion to thank Mr. Eugene O'Keefe and others for the practical interests they had always taken in the furtherance of Catholic education, by generally donating medals and prizes. Mr. Carey, for the Separate School Board, regretted that they could not afford tiglve prizes as they knould, and apoke of the interest always taken by Rev. Father Ryan in the encouragement of the boys in their studies, and the generosity of Mr. O'Keefe, in giving medals. The entertainment, provided by the pupils, was extremely good.

St. Jozeph's

St. Joseph's.

The Triduum given by the Rev. Dr. Treavy at St. Joseph's Church was a complete Success. Devotions were held in the church for three consecutive evenings, which were more than usually well attended. Dr. Treasy preached on the Thursday and Friday evenings and Father Kelly ou Saturday, at which there was a large congregation. After the devotions there was a rash for the confessional and it was evident that one Priest could not hear them all. One of the collectors, Mr. Cooney, knowing that Father Howard, of St. Basil's, was at the French church, sent for him about 0 c'olock. He arrived 'n about half an hour and did good work till 11. It took Father Kelly half an hour to give Holy Communion at the 9 o'clock mass on Sunday. All the masses were largely attended. At the High slass a beautiful and touching discourse was given by Father Kelly on devotion to the Sacred Heart. The attendance at Vespers for the Solemn Act of Consecration exceeded anything in the history of St. Joseph's, the church was astually packed.

The half yearly collection for paying the interest on the debt was taken up

The half yearly collection for paying the interest on the debt was taken up at the two masses and was gradensly responded to, so that he Rev. Father in charge should be perfectly satisfied with the results of his labors of the last few days.

At the 9 o'clook mass on Sunday last about 40 children received their first Communion and at Veepers in the evening renewed their Baptismal Vows and wereinvested in the Scapular.

There were married at the 7 o'clock mass Mr. Fred Reed and Miss Bertta Dolan, of Hogarth Ave, two well and favorbly known young people of this parish.
