LITTELL'S LIVING AGE FOR 1896. The announcement of a reduction in the price of this famous eclectic from eight dollars to six dollars a year will prove of more than usual interest to lovers of choice literature. Founded in 1844, it will soon enter its fifty-third year of a continuous and successful career seldom equalled.

This standard weekly is the oldest, as it is the best, concentration of choicest periodical literature printed in this country. Those who desire a thorough compendium of all that is admirable and noteworthy in the literary world will be spared the trouble of wading through the sea of reviews and magazines published abroad, for they will find the essence of all compacted and concentrated here.
