

New York, Sept. 28th, 2 p. m.

The steamer Pacific, on starting out of her dock, pitched her wheel-house against a large heavy built wood house or shed, built on the pier, under which a large number of people were collected to see her off. The whole of the west end of the shed was drawn down with a tremendous crash, falling suddenly on the people; two or three were killed outright, and several were badly wounded. A number are still under the ruins; many barely escaped by running for their lives—the scene was indescribable.

The Pacific came to in the dock to render assistance; the particulars have not transpired. She has 85 passengers.

7 P. M.

The Pacific, owing to the accident, will not sail before 8 o'clock this evening, although her damage is little or nothing. The accounts of the accident are conflicting—some state that only one person was killed, namely, Mr J. S. Wilson, brother of the Deputy Clerk of the Common Council; others affirm that two or three were drowned. No other bodies have yet been discovered. The excitement is still intense.

The Crescent City sailed at 3 o'clock this afternoon for Chagres, with 87 passengers, and the Philadelphia with 49 passengers.

A personal encounter took place in the United States Senate, in the Anti-Chamber last night, between Senators Fremont and Foote, they were separated by the bystanders, and neither sustained any injury.

Boston, September 28.

Notwithstanding a stormy night, the Temple was crowded to suffocation, and Jenny Lind met with a most enthusiastic reception at her first concert. The fireworks, &c., in her honor, were postponed till this evening.
