

The True Witness AND CATHOLIC CHRONICLE, A WEEKLY EDITION OF THE "EVENING POST"

IS PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, AT 761 CRAIG STREET, MONTREAL.

By M. C. MULLIN & CO. Proprietors. Terms (by Mail) $1.50 per Annum in Advance City (Delivered) $2.00

MONTREAL, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 22.

NOTICE

Subscribers should notice the date on the label attached to their paper, as it marks the expiration of their term of subscription.

Subscribers who do not receive the TRUE WITNESS regularly should complain direct to our Office. By so doing the postal authorities can be the sooner notified, and the error, if there be any, rectified at once.

Subscribers, when requesting their addresses to be changed, will please state the name of the Post Office at which they have been receiving their papers, as well as their new address.

Special Notice. Subscribers, when writing to this office, will kindly date their letters from the postoffice at which they receive the TRUE WITNESS, and thereby save us much time and trouble in attending to their correspondence.

Prize Fight. The New York Clipper publishes the "arrangements" made for a prize fight that is to take place in Canada.

The Durham Terrace Meeting. We think it time for our Quebec contemporaries to give up writing about the Durham Terrace meeting. It appears to us that all concerned in the meeting are heartily ashamed of it, and there it ought to rest.

Rowdiness. We clip the following item from the Quebec Chronicle of Tuesday: Rowdiness.—We are informed that one of the windows of the French Protestant Church in this city was wantonly broken by rowdies on Friday evening last.

Madame Anderson's Triumph. It has been reserved for a woman to perform one of the most remarkable feats of pedestrianism ever witnessed in the world.

Divorce Cases. As the Parliamentary Session approaches, we are reminded that the question of Divorce will be again introduced, and will again, we hope, be received as it has been hitherto.

homeless phase of the Divorce question, and that alone should make people pause in their desire to introduce the system into a community which is now contented without it.

The Cost of Government. The government of Canada costs Canadians $10,750,000 a year. This, too, is exclusive of the monies spent on immigration, police, penitentiaries, debt management and interest, public works maintenance, &c.

Another Fiction. Recently we wrote of the Venmor Fiction, and to-day we have another Fiction to assail. The Fiction of yesterday originated in egotism, the Fiction of to-day originated in folly.

The Orangemen Again. The Orangemen have come to the front in Manitoba. They have insulted a Catholic priest, broke into his house, and conducted themselves in general in such a manner as to bring upon them the censure of all well-meaning citizens.

Volunteer Militia Reform. The duties of public journalists are sometimes hard. Men who live away from the trials of public life may criticize in private and so mould their views as not to offend their neighbours.

The Mayor Elect of Ottawa. Mr. Mackintosh, the Mayor elect of Ottawa, has done an act which augurs well for the future of his municipality. When the announcement of his election was made public, his friends proposed to have a torchlight procession in his honor.

Protection. The special correspondent of the Montreal Herald, in a letter which appears in this morning's issue, gives some interesting particulars as to the proposed changes in the Tariff.

The Princess Louise. We are not among those who would invent either vices or virtues for the Princess Louise. Her exalted station should neither make people sycophants nor revilers.

The Late W. P. McGuire. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

cheerfully stood behind the poor children's chairs and bent over them with fond solicitude. A Princess waits upon a poor man's child, and for the moment forgets the guilt that separates them.

Mr. Thomas White, M. P., as a Missionary. There was a missionary meeting held in St. Luke's Church on Thursday evening. There were several well known Protestant clergymen present, and not one word was said by any of them to which any impartial man could take exception.

The "Star" and the Fenian Condon. Some time since the Star published an "interview" which was reported to have taken place between the Fenian Condon and one of the "Star" special agents.

Protection. The special correspondent of the Montreal Herald, in a letter which appears in this morning's issue, gives some interesting particulars as to the proposed changes in the Tariff.

The Princess Louise. We are not among those who would invent either vices or virtues for the Princess Louise. Her exalted station should neither make people sycophants nor revilers.

The Late W. P. McGuire. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

wholesale manner, in which, they have dismissed some of the Civil servants of the Crown; and how the hardness of the times can have anything to do with it.

As for "bamboozling the farmer," that is a Reformer's phrase, and will be taken for what it is worth. So are the doubts which the writer throws out here and there.

Mr. Thomas White, M. P., as a Missionary. There was a missionary meeting held in St. Luke's Church on Thursday evening. There were several well known Protestant clergymen present, and not one word was said by any of them to which any impartial man could take exception.

The "Star" and the Fenian Condon. Some time since the Star published an "interview" which was reported to have taken place between the Fenian Condon and one of the "Star" special agents.

Protection. The special correspondent of the Montreal Herald, in a letter which appears in this morning's issue, gives some interesting particulars as to the proposed changes in the Tariff.

The Princess Louise. We are not among those who would invent either vices or virtues for the Princess Louise. Her exalted station should neither make people sycophants nor revilers.

The Late W. P. McGuire. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved.—That in the death of Mr. W. P. McGuire this Association loses one of its most valued and trusted advisers, society one of its most honest and upright members, and each of us a sincere and good friend.

As for "bamboozling the farmer," that is a Reformer's phrase, and will be taken for what it is worth. So are the doubts which the writer throws out here and there.

Mr. Thomas White, M. P., as a Missionary. There was a missionary meeting held in St. Luke's Church on Thursday evening. There were several well known Protestant clergymen present, and not one word was said by any of them to which any impartial man could take exception.

The "Star" and the Fenian Condon. Some time since the Star published an "interview" which was reported to have taken place between the Fenian Condon and one of the "Star" special agents.

Protection. The special correspondent of the Montreal Herald, in a letter which appears in this morning's issue, gives some interesting particulars as to the proposed changes in the Tariff.

The Princess Louise. We are not among those who would invent either vices or virtues for the Princess Louise. Her exalted station should neither make people sycophants nor revilers.

The Late W. P. McGuire. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved.—That in the death of Mr. W. P. McGuire this Association loses one of its most valued and trusted advisers, society one of its most honest and upright members, and each of us a sincere and good friend.

As for "bamboozling the farmer," that is a Reformer's phrase, and will be taken for what it is worth. So are the doubts which the writer throws out here and there.

Mr. Thomas White, M. P., as a Missionary. There was a missionary meeting held in St. Luke's Church on Thursday evening. There were several well known Protestant clergymen present, and not one word was said by any of them to which any impartial man could take exception.

The "Star" and the Fenian Condon. Some time since the Star published an "interview" which was reported to have taken place between the Fenian Condon and one of the "Star" special agents.

Protection. The special correspondent of the Montreal Herald, in a letter which appears in this morning's issue, gives some interesting particulars as to the proposed changes in the Tariff.

The Princess Louise. We are not among those who would invent either vices or virtues for the Princess Louise. Her exalted station should neither make people sycophants nor revilers.

The Late W. P. McGuire. At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Irish Mutual Building Society, held on the evening of the 3rd January, instant, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.